

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Section 1: Introduction
1. Geography as an active social science Rod Gerber and Michael Williams	1
Section 2: Geography and Culture
2. Geography as a cultural field Wayne Davies and Mary Gilmartin	13
3. Geography, culture, values and education Gwyn Edwards	31
4. Geography, technology and culture Sue Buzer	41
5. Traditional medicine in Southeast Asia with special reference to Malaysia and Indonesia Shaharudden Ahmad	51
6. Cultural interpretation and research in geography Anders Narman	65
Section 3: Geography and Citizenship
7. Connectedness and self-meaning Margaret Robertson	77
8. Geography and the informed citizen David Lambert	93
9. Active citizenship: empowering people as cultural agents through geography Daniella Tilbury	105
10. Environment and citizenship: from the local to the global Manuela Malheiro Ferriera	115

- |     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| 11. | Political geography, geographical education and citizenshipJoeseeph Stoltman and Lisa DeChano | 127 |
| 12. | Geography and communitiesDooil Kim  | 145 |

Section 4: Pedagogic Implications

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 13. | Geography, culture and knowing: hybridity and theproduction of social and cultural knowledgeJeff Lash and Pamela Wridt | 159 |
| 14. | Public participation and the active, critical citizen: another viewDavid Stea  | 169 |
| 15. | New technologies and their impact on the culture ofgeography teaching and learningJohn Lidstone                        | 179 |
| 16. | Conflict management: the role of geographical educationJulie Okpala and Ann Okolo  | 191 |
| 17. | Geography beyond the classroom: achieving culturalunderstanding through issue-based inquiry learningTammy Kwan         | 207 |

Section 5: Future Directions

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 18. | Globalisation and Latin America: a fruitless search for balanceJosefina Ostuni               | 221 |
| 19. | Geographical education and the challenge of lifelong learningRod Gerber and Michael Williams | 233 |

Geography, Culture and Education

Gerber, R.; Williams, M. (Eds.)

2002, XIII, 250 p. 7 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4020-0878-8