

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Contradictory Encounters with Humanistic Education	1
Chapter I Between the Classical and Post-modern: Milestones and Central Approaches in Humanistic Education	9
1. The Initial Question: How to be a Human Being	9
2. The Cultural-Classical Approach and the Longing for Human Perfection	12
3. The Naturalistic-Romantic Approach and the Yearning for the Authenticity of Self-Actualization	37
4. The Existential Approach and the Yearning for the Authenticity of Self-Creation	42
5. The Critical-Radical Approach and the Yearning for Empowerment and Emancipation	47
6. Humanistic Education in the Age of the Repudiation of "Man": The Postmodern Challenge	52
Chapter II An Integrative and Normative Model for Humanistic Education at the Advent of the 21 st Century	61
Introduction	61
1. Humanism as a Worldview and Moral Stance: A Normative Definition
2. Humanistic Education: An Integrative and Normative Definition	77
3. Three Principal Goals: Quality of Culture, Autonomous and Critical Thinking, and Authentic Personality	85
(a) Quality of Culture	85
(b) Autonomous and Critical Thinking	92
(c) Authentic Personality	97

4. The Ways of Humanistic Education	104
(a) Balanced Combination Between Approaches and Goals	105
(b) Between Orientation and Information	107
(c) Educational Climate	108
(d) The Curriculum	110
(e) Connective and Communicative Teaching or the Tree of Knowledge as the Tree of Life	111
Chapter III Education Towards Humanistic Morality in an Era of Value Crisis	119
1. Point of Departure	119
2. The Sphere of Morality and its Manifestations in Everyday Life	122
(a) Values	126
(b) Qualities of Character	128
(c) Moral Principles	130
3. Characteristics of a Value Crisis	132
4. The Sources of the Authority of Moral Judgment	136
5. The Methods and Limitations of Moral Humanistic Education	142
(a) Reciprocity as a Point of Departure for Moral Consideration	145
(b) Nurturing the Moral Point of View	146
(c) Sensitivity to Justice and Ensuring that Justice be Done	148
(d) Nurturing the Love of Fellow Humans, Benevolence and Amiability	154
(e) Nurturing a Striving Towards Perfection	154
(f) Nurturing a Positive Self-Image and a Feeling of self-worth	156
(g) Reinforcing Character and Personality	157
(h) Sensitive Caring for the Other, Empathic Understanding, Compassion and Tenderness	157
(i) Nurturing Moral Knowledge of Good and Bad	159
6. Pedagogical Means	162

(a) Personal Example and the Inculcation of Habit	162
(b) Nurturing Cultural Literacy	164
(c) Nurturing Critical Literacy	165
(d) Teaching that Nurtures Moral Awareness and Sensitivity	168
 Chapter IV Humanistic Education in the Test of Current Events	 173
Introduction	173
1. The Goal of Education and its Manifestations in the Professional Ethics of Educators and Teachers	176
2. Education Toward Peace and Democracy	183
3. Education Toward Culture or Submission to the Culture of Ratings	194
4. The New Literacies and their Possible Contribution to Humanistic Education	204
 Epilogue	 215
Bibliography	219

<http://www.springer.com/978-1-4020-0961-7>

Enhancing Humanity

The Philosophical Foundations of Humanistic Education

Aloni, N.

2003, XIV, 230 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4020-0961-7