

Contents

Part One

Understanding the Internet-Revolution

Chapter 1

The Evolution of the E-Economy: Consequences for Theory Building in Economics and in the Economy MICHAEL EHRET, MICHAELA HAASE, MARTIN KALUZA	3
---	---

Chapter 2

Optimizing Individual Communication – Reducing Institutional Communication? The Necessity of a New Form of Business Ethics in the E-Economy Era CHRISTOPH HUBIG	34
--	----

Chapter 3

Changes in the Producer-Consumer Relationship in Electronic Commerce – Examples from Book Publishing and Trade ULRICH RIEHM	44
---	----

Chapter 4

The End of Consumption in Information Society ULI ZAPPE	59
--	----

CONTENTS

Chapter 5

Consumer Profiles in E-Commerce: How Companies Form Identities ANDREAS GREIS	77
---	----

Chapter 6

Virtual Reality as a Problem of the Electronic Economy PETER KOSLOWSKI	86
---	----

Part Two

Ethical Challenges of the Economic Economy

Chapter 7

Tricksters on the Internet: eCommerce, Data Mining and the Parallel Context DIETER KLUMPP	105
---	-----

Chapter 8

Power Redistribution and Ethical Challenges in E-Commerce PAUL WHYSALL	125
---	-----

Chapter 9

Transcultural Ethics: Beyond the Electronic Economy of MTV ROBERT VAN ES	144
---	-----

CONTENTS

Chapter 10

Consumers vs. E-Business: Who Should Pay? An Ethical Discourse on the Right to Privacy ANASTASIA H. CORTES	159
--	-----

Chapter 11

Ethical Crisis on the Internet: the Case of Licra vs. Yahoo! MARK HUNTER, MARC LE MENESTREL, HENRI-CLAUDE DE BETTIGNIES	177
--	-----

Chapter 12

A Sketch of Consumer Ethics with Particular Emphasis on Virtual Options MICHAEL NEUNER	209
--	-----

Chapter 13

Building Consumer Trust in Online Markets SONJA GRABNER-KRÄUTER	223
--	-----

List of Authors	237
-----------------------	-----

Index of Names	241
----------------------	-----

Business Ethics and the Electronic Economy

Koslowki, P.; Hubig, C.; Fischer, P. (Eds.)

2004, IX, 248 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-540-22150-0