

⑤ ✓

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	1
Edward M. Graham, Nina Oding and Paul J.J. Welfens
A. Structural Change, Natural Resources Sector Expansion and Growth in Russia .....	5
Paul J.J. Welfens and Albrecht Kauffmann
1. Introduction .....	6
2. The Topic of Dutch Disease: A Theoretical Approach .....	10
2.1 The Model of Corden and Neary .....	12
2.2 Selected Complementary Issues .....	17
3. Structural and Long-term Perspective of the Oil and Gas Sector.....	19
4. Policy Implications.....	31
Appendix .....	34
References .....	44
Comment on: Structural Change, Natural Resource Sector Expansion and Growth in Russia.....	46
Andrey P. Zaostrovtssev
B. Monetary and Financial Stability as a Basis for Russia's Sustained Economic Internationalization .....	51
José Fajgenbaum
1. Introduction .....	52
2. Elements and Conditions for Monetary and Financial Stability.....	52
2.1 Monetary and Exchange Rate Policy .....	52
2.2 Fiscal Policy .....	54
2.3 Financial Sector.....	57
3. Conclusion.....	59
Comment on: Monetary and Financial Stability as a Basis for Russia's Sustained Economic Internationalization .....	61
Christof Ruehl

C. Core Inflation in Russia – Different Approaches for the Period from January 1997 to April 2003.....	67
Cathleen Faber and Hans Gerhard Strohe
1. Basic Framework.....	68
2. Criteria for Selecting a Measure of Core Inflation.....	69
3. Different Approaches to Measure Core Inflation.....	70
3.1 Statistical Approaches .....	70
3.2 Econometric Approaches .....	73
4. Empirical Approaches for Russian Core Inflation .....	75
5. The Official Russian Measure of Core Inflation .....	83
6. Conclusions .....	84
References .....	86
 Comment on: Core Inflation in Russia – Different Approaches for the Period from January 1997 to April 2003 .....	 87
Irina Eliseeva
 D. Russia's Banking System, the Central Bank and the Exchange Rate Regime .....	 89
Ralf Wiegert
1. Introduction .....	90
2. Original Sin and Beyond: Sources for Banking System Instability ..	92
3. The Unofficial Peg of the Ruble.....	98
4. The Central Bank, Competition in the Banking System and Allocative Efficiency .....	105
5. Conclusions and Policy Options.....	117
References .....	119

E. Russia and International Economic Structures .....	121
Ruslan Grinberg
1. Introduction .....	122
2. Russia and International Economic Organizations.....	122
2.1 Russia and the International Monetary Fund .....	122
2.2 Russia and the World Bank of Reconstruction and Development .....	127
2.3 Russia and the World Trade Organization .....	131
2.4 Russia and the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development .....	135
3. Russia and Regional Integration Blocs .....	140
3.1 Russia and the European Union .....	140
3.2 Russia and the Group of 8 .....	144
3.3 Russia and Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation .....	147
3.4 Russia in the Commonwealth of Independent States .....	149
References .....	159
Comment on: Russia and International Economic Structures.....	161
Paul J.J. Welfens
F.1 An Increase of Energy Efficiency as a Major Tool for Achieving Energy Security.....	165
Petra Opitz
1. Introduction.....	166
2. Increasing Energy Efficiency – a Major Challenge and Opportunity for Russia .....	166
3. Existing Barriers to Develop the Potential.....	168
F.2 European Energy Security: Opportunities and Problems for Cooperation EU-Russia .....	175
Peter Palinkas
1. Introduction.....	176
2. European Energy Sector .....	176

N

VIII Table of Contents

---

3. The EU-Russia Energy Partnership .....	177
3.1 General Remarks .....	177
3.2 Why such a Partnership? .....	177
3.3 Objectives of the Partnership .....	178
4. Progress and Recent Developments in the EU-Russia Energy Partnership .....	179
4.1 EU Internal Gas and Electricity Market .....	179
4.2 Energy Infrastructure Projects of "Common Interest" .....	179
4.3 Gas Supplies and Long Term Contracts .....	179
4.4 The Legal Framework .....	180
4.5 Trade in Nuclear Materials .....	180
4.6 Electricity .....	181
4.7 Pilot Projects .....	181
4.8 Oil and Gas Security .....	182
4.9 Clean Coal .....	182
4.10 Energy Technology Center .....	183
4.11 Cooperation on Implementing the Kyoto Protocol .....	183
5. Summary .....	184
G. Diversification of the Russian Economy and Growth .....	187
Evgeny Gavrilentov
1. Growth Mechanism is Changing .....	188
2. He is Able who Thinks he is Able .....	191
3. To Change and to Change for the Better are two Different Things .....	197
4. Vivat, Crescat, Floreat! .....	202
5. Three Ways of Restructuring .....	205
6. Does the Central Bank's Monetary Policy Stimulate Restructuring? .....	209
7. Government Aims at Diversification .....	211
8. Banking Sector Restructuring and Growth .....	213
References .....	218

N

H. Internationalization of Russian Regions: The Role of MNCs and Outsourcing with Respect to Domestic and Foreign SMEs ..	219
Nina Oding
1. Introduction .....	220
2. Role of FDI in the Globalizing World.....	221
3. Internationalization of Russia.....	226
4. Differentiations and Internationalization of Russian Regions.....	231
5. Competitive Advantages in Northwest Russia .....	235
6. Outsourcing: Opportunities and Challenges.....	240
Appendix .....	244
References .....	245
Comment on: Internationalization of Russian Regions: The Role of MNCs and Outsourcing with Respect to Domestic and Foreign SMEs.....	247
Christopher Schumann
I. Do Export Processing Zones Attract FDI and its Benefits? Experience from China and Lessons for Russia .....	251
Edward M. Graham
1. Introduction .....	252
2. Some Background: the SEZs and the Opening of China to Foreign Investment during the 1980s.....	253
3. The 1991 Reforms and their Aftermath.....	258
4. The Period of the SEZs Re-examined .....	262
5. Implications of the Chinese Experience for Russia.....	266
References .....	271
Comment on: Do Export Processing Zones Attract FDI and its Benefits? Experience from China and Lessons for Russia .....	273
Thomas Gries

J. The Baltic Sea Regional Integration and International Trade: A Gravity Model Approach.....	277
Tiiu Paas
1. Introduction .....	278
2. Theoretical Foundations for Using Gravity Models in Studying International Trade Flows .....	279
3. Specifications of Gravity Equations for Exploring Regional Integration in Trade.....	281
3.1. Gravity Equation and Data.....	281
3.2. Exploring Deviations from the Traditional Gravitational Forces Explaining Bilateral Trade Flows of the Countries .....	282
4. Modeling International Trade Flows in the Context of EU Eastward Enlargement .....	285
4.1. The Specifications of the Gravity Equations.....	285
4.2. The Estimation Results of the Model 1 and Model 2.....	286
4.3. Behavior Differences between the Trade Flows of EU15 and CC12 .....	287
5. Trade Integration in the Baltic Sea Region (BSR) .....	289
5.1. Modeling Bilateral Trade Flows of the BSR Countries .....	289
5.2. The BSR Role in the Baltic States' Trade Relations.....	290
6. Conclusions .....	292
Appendix .....	295
References .....	298
Comment on: The Baltic Sea Regional Integration and International Trade: A Gravity Model Approach .....	301
Natalja von Westernhagen

N

---

K. Russia's Foreign Economic Relations and Regional Integration in CIS Countries: Theory, Problems and Options .....	305
Olga Nosova
1. Introduction .....	306
2. Russia's Foreign Economic Relations: Policy Performance and Development Perspectives .....	307
3. Political and Economic Issues of CIS Development .....	315
4. Regional Economic Integration in CIS: Problems and Development Prospects .....	320
5. Policy Conclusions .....	322
Appendix .....	324
References .....	326
 Comment on: Russia's Foreign Economic Relations and Regional Integration in CIS Countries: Theory, Problems and Options....	328
Grigori Feiguine
1. Conceptual Foundations of Empirical Studies .....	328
2. The Problem of Comparative Empirical Analysis and Benchmarking .....	329
3. Questionability of Certain Assertions .....	330
4. One-Sided Nature of Conclusions .....	330
 List of Figures .....	333
List of Tables .....	339
List of Contributors .....	341

Internationalization and Economic Policy Reforms in Transition Countries

Graham, E.M.; Oding, N.; Welfens, P.J.J. (Eds.)

2005, XI, 344 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-540-24040-2