

Table of Contents

Introduction 1

CHAPTER 1:

To Panel or Not to Panel – What Is and What Is Not an Online Access Panel 5

Online Market Research. Perspectives5

 The Online Trend in the Context of Offline Market Research..... 5

 Sampling 6

 Respondent Convenience 6

 Speed..... 7

 Cost & Price vs. Quality 8

 Online Reporting Tools..... 9

 Questionnaire Complexity 10

 Background Information 11

 Online Attempts of Re-Contextualising Market Research:

 The Digital Trend..... 12

Offline vs. Online Access Panels 14

Who Are Our Online Respondents? 14

 History..... 14

 Trends..... 15

What Makes an Online Access Panel? 16

 Recruitment..... 17

 Recruitment Source and Method..... 17

 Recruitment Questionnaire 18

 Management..... 19

 Password Procedures 20

 Para Data Analysis 21

 Attrition & Purge 22

 Response Rate & Response Control 22

 Sampling 23

| | |
|---|----|
| Panel Rules..... | 24 |
| Communication | 26 |
| Support Communication | 26 |
| Direct Communications | 27 |
| Unsubscribing Membership | 27 |
| Terms & Conditions..... | 28 |
| Questionnaire..... | 32 |
| Screening Questions..... | 33 |
| Global Coverage and Size..... | 34 |
| Incentive Policies | 36 |
| Background Information | 37 |
| What Doesn't Make an Online Access Panel? | 38 |
| Recruitment..... | 38 |
| Management..... | 39 |
| Sampling | 40 |
| Rules | 42 |
| Communication | 42 |
| Global Coverage and Size..... | 43 |
| Incentive Policies and Prices..... | 43 |
| Available Information | 43 |
| Conclusions – EFAMRO Quality Standards for Access Panels (QSAP)..... | 44 |

CHAPTER 2:

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Bottling Communication: The Rhetoric of Online Interviewing | 47 |
| Prologue..... | 47 |
| From Linguistic Behaviour to Social Roles | 47 |
| G.H. Mead's Sociology..... | 48 |
| The School of Symbolic Interactionism (SI)..... | 49 |
| Herbert Blumer's Model | 49 |
| Ervin Goffman's Theory of Roles | 50 |
| Mediated Identities | 51 |
| The Myth of World Wide Web and the Networked World..... | 52 |
| Negotiating the Self in Mediated Contact – Web Pages | 53 |

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Social Context Cues | 54 |
| Flaming and the Task-Oriented Research Model in Computer-Mediated Communication | 55 |
| The Social-Emotion-Oriented Model..... | 57 |
| The Social Identity Model of Deindividuation Effects (SIDE)..... | 58 |
| Steps Towards a Synthetic Model..... | 59 |
| Bottling Communication: Applying Symbolic Interactionism to Computer-Mediated Communication | 62 |
| Social Roles in Panel Communication | 63 |
| CHAPTER 3: | |
| Launching the Bottle: The Rhetoric of the Online Researcher | 67 |
| Recruitment Practices and Introductory Discourse | 67 |
| Online Access Panels Recruitment Practices | 67 |
| A Matter of Principle | 67 |
| On to On vs. Off to On..... | 68 |
| Introductory Discourse..... | 70 |
| Email Marketing – The Rhetoric of the Online Researcher’s Introductory Discourse | 70 |
| Transitivity in Computer-Mediated Communication: Snowballing | 77 |
| Staging Letters and the Use of Hyperlinks in Panel Communication | 81 |
| Invitation to Surveys | 85 |
| Invitation to Research Surveys..... | 85 |
| Invitation to Screening Surveys | 88 |
| Letter to Winner | 89 |
| Support Messages – The True Social Dialogue | 92 |
| Panellist Website and Newsletters | 100 |
| Panellist Web Page..... | 100 |
| Newsletter | 102 |
| Conclusions | 104 |

CHAPTER 4:

| | |
|---|----------------|
| Finding the Bottle: The Rhetoric of the Online Panellist..... | 109 |
| The Online Trend in Market Research Between Collection Method and Perception Stage..... | 109 |
| Membership Perception | 112 |
| Perception of Incentives | 116 |
| Perception of Hotline | 120 |
| Conclusions | 122 |
| Conclusions..... | 125 |
| References | 129 |
| Appendix 1: Panellist Satisfaction Survey | 133 |
| Appendix 2: Access Panels Quality Checklist..... | 137 |
| Appendix 3: Checklist of Procedures | 145 |
| Appendix 4: EFAMRO – International Quality Standards for Access Panels (QSAP)..... | 147 |

The Anonymous Elect
Market Research Through Online Access Panels
Postoaca, A.
2006, X, 157 p.,
ISBN: 978-3-540-29030-8