

Contents

Part I: Varying Structures and Convergent Trends in Prosecution within Europe A European Six-Country Comparison

The Function of Public Prosecution within the Criminal Justice System Aim, Approach and Outcome of a European Comparative Study Jörg-Martin Jehle	3
The Power to Decide – Prosecutorial Control, Diversion and Punishment in European Criminal Justice Systems Today Marianne Wade	27
Dealing with Various Offence Types in Different Criminal Justice Systems – Case Examples All authors	127

Part II: The Prosecution Service Function within the Criminal Justice System - Country Reports

The Prosecution Service Function within the English Criminal Justice System Chris Lewis	151
The Prosecution Service Function within the French Criminal Justice System Bruno Aubusson de Cavarlay	185
The Prosecution Service Function within the German Criminal Justice System Beatrix Elsner, Julia Peters	207
The Prosecution Service Function within the Dutch Criminal Justice System Martine Blom, Paul Smit	237
The Prosecution Service Function within the Polish Criminal Justice System Teodor Bulenda, Beata Gruszczynska, Andrzej Krempleski, Piotr Sobota	257
The Prosecution Service Function within the Swedish Criminal Justice System Josef Zila	285

Part III: Appendix

Contents of the Questionnaire	315
List of Authors	331

Coping with Overloaded Criminal Justice Systems

The Rise of Prosecutorial Power Across Europe

Jehle, J.-M.; Wade, M.

2006, VIII, 333 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-540-33958-8