

Contents

Executive summary	1
Introduction and overview	9
Chapter 1: The European Employment Strategy	13
1 Historical development	13
1.1 The 2002 impact evaluation of the EES	16
1.2 The 2003 revision and the 2005 revamp of the EES.	18
2 The current situation on European labor markets.	19
3 The Joint Employment Report 2004/2005	23
Chapter 2: An overview of Active Labor Market Policies	27
1 Types of ALMPs	27
2 ALMP expenditure.	29
3 A brief theoretical framework	31
Chapter 3: The methodology of program evaluation	35
1 Major elements of program evaluation	35
1.1 Choice of outcomes.	36
1.2 Measuring program costs.	37
1.3 Evaluation strategies	38
2 The evaluation problem: a formal statement	39
2.1 Construction of counterfactuals	39
2.2 Sampling distributions	43
3 Empirical approaches to the evaluation problem	44
3.1 Experimental studies	44
3.2 Observational studies	45
Chapter 4: Reports from selected EU25 member states	53
1 Active Labor Market Policies in The Netherlands	53
1.1 General economic situation	53

1.2	Labor market institutions	53
1.3	Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	54
1.4	Evaluation studies	56
1.5	Summary	60
2	Active Labor Market Policies in Sweden	61
2.1	General economic situation	61
2.2	Labor market institutions	61
2.3	Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	62
2.4	Evaluation studies	64
2.5	Summary	67
3	Active Labor Market Policies in Austria	68
3.1	General economic situation	68
3.2	Labor market institutions	68
3.3	Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	70
3.4	Evaluation studies	73
3.5	Summary	75
4	Active Labor Market Policies in Germany	76
4.1	General economic situation	76
4.2	Labor market institutions	76
4.3	Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	79
4.3.1	Training programs	79
4.3.2	(Financial) Incentive schemes	81
4.3.3	Direct job creation schemes	84
4.3.4	Job search assistance	85
4.3.5	Youth programs.	86
4.3.6	Measures for the disabled	87
4.4	Evaluation studies	87
4.5	Summary	91
5	Active Labor Market Policies in Italy	92
5.1	General economic situation	92
5.2	Labor market institutions	92
5.3	Measures of Active Labor Market Policies	95
5.4	Evaluation studies	98
5.5	Summary	100
6	Active Labor Market Policies in Denmark	100
6.1	General economic situation	100
6.2	Labor market institutions	102
6.3	Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	105
6.4	Evaluation studies	107
6.5	Summary	114
7	Active Labor Market Policies in Estonia	114

Contents	IX
7.1 General economic situation	114
7.2 Labor market institutions	115
7.3 Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	117
7.4 Evaluation studies	120
7.5 Summary	121
8 Active Labor Market Policies in Poland.	122
8.1 General economic situation	122
8.2 Labor market institutions	123
8.3 Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	125
8.3.1 Passive labor market policies	127
8.3.2 Active labor market policies	128
8.4 Evaluation studies	131
8.5 Summary	133
9 Active Labor Market Policies in Spain	134
9.1 General economic situation	134
9.2 Labor market institutions	135
9.3 Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	136
9.4 Evaluation studies	138
9.5 Summary	139
10 Active Labor Market Policies in France.	139
10.1 General economic situation	139
10.2 Labor Market Institutions	140
10.3 Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	141
10.4 Evaluation of the schemes	143
10.5 Summary	145
11 Active Labor Market Policies in the UK	146
11.1 General economic situation	146
11.2 Labor market institutions	147
11.3 Measures of Active Labor Market Policy	149
11.4 Evaluation studies	150
11.5 Summary	151
Chapter 5: The effectiveness of European ALMPs	153
1 Findings from previous research.	153
2 Summary of the results from recent European evaluation research . . .	156
2.1 Results from microeconomic studies	156
2.2 Results from macroeconomic studies	168
2.3 Overall assessment	170
3 Quantitative Analysis	172
3.1 Structure of the data	173
3.2 Empirical results	175
3.3 Summary of findings	185

Chapter 6: Conclusions and policy recommendations. 187

Appendix 191

List of figures 205

List of tables 207

References 209

Active Labor Market Policies in Europe
Performance and Perspectives

Kluve, J.; Card, D.; Fertig, M.; Góra, M.; Jacobi, L.; Jensen,
P.; Leetmaa, R.; Nima, L.; Patacchini, E.; Schaffner, S.;
Schmidt, C.M.; Klaauw, B. van der; Weber, A.
2007, X, 222 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-540-48557-5