

Contents

PrefaceV

Introduction 1
Marita Carballo and Ulf Hjelm

Part 1: International Polls

The Effects of Globalisation on the Perception of Democracy 13
Tony Cowling

Transatlantic Trends: Convergences and Divergences 25
Marita Carballo and Leendert De Voogd

A Europe of Values: From Shared History to Common Objectives 43
Pascal Chelala

Latin America’s Mixed Views About Globalization, Investments and the United States 61
Constanza Cilley

How Do the Western Balkans See Their Future? 77
Marchella Abrasheva

Part 2: Public Opinion Polling in National Elections

Exit Polls – A Lot More than Just a Tool for Election Forecasts 93

Richard Hilmer

Methodological Issues in Pre-Election Polling: Lessons from ABC News' 32-Night Tracking Poll..... 109

Daniel Merkle, Gary Langer, and David Lambert

The Presidential Elections in France 2007 – The Role of Opinion Polls 135

Brice Teinturier

Voters Lack Commitment: Canada..... 153

Richard Jenkins

Part 3: The Public Sector in Transition

Developing Employment Policy in Europe 173

Harald Bielenski

The School Sport Partnership Programme – Raising Levels of Participation in Physical Education and Sport in Schools in England 191

Susannah Quick

Client Satisfaction with Public Services: A Norwegian Case 207

Ole Ugland

Part 4: Asia on the Move

The Role of Social Research in Development Programs: Examples from India 229

U.V. Somayajulu and Tilak Mukherji

A Framework for Social Development Assessment 247

Daniel Lindgren and John Budd

Polling in Developing Democracies – The Case of the Philippines 267

Mercedes Abad and Ophelia Ramirez

Māori Television Services – Raising Knowledge of Māori Language and Culture in New Zealand 281

Elizabeth Vink

About the Authors 293

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-540-75752-8>

Public Opinion Polling in a Globalized World

Carballo, M.; Hjelmar, U. (Eds.)

2008, IX, 300 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-540-75752-8