

Table of Contents

List of Tables and Figures	XVII
---	-------------

Chapter 1 – The Limits of the Law (Introduction).....	1
Erik Claes, Wouter Devroe and Bert Keirsbilck

1 Introduction	1
2 Functions and Limits of the Law	4
3 Characteristics of the Law and Refining the Law’s Limits	11
4 Conclusion.....	22

Chapter 2 – Private Law and the Limits of Legal Dogmatics	25
Marc A. Loth

1 Introduction: A Legal Problem.....	25
2 Solutions from Legal Theory	28
3 Philosophical Foundations	34
4 Back to Law	39
5 Conclusion.....	43

Chapter 3 – The Limits of the Law of Obligations.....	45
Kurt Willems

1 Introduction: Limits of the Law of Obligations.....	45
2 Limits of the Law of Obligations with Regard to Morality	46
3 The Notion of Obligatio Naturalis in the Law of Obligations	47
4 Transcending the Boundary between Law and Morality	52
5 Conclusion.....	56

Chapter 4 – Labour Law and the Limits of Dogmatic Legal Thinking	57
Mathieu van Putten

1 Introduction	57
2 The Origins of Modern Labour Law	59
3 The Legal Conception of Collective Labour Agreements in Belgium	61
4 The Legal Status of the CLA vis-à-vis Constitutional Law	64
5 The Legal Status of the CLA vis-à-vis Economic Law.....	67
6 Conclusion.....	71

Chapter 5 – The Limits of Consumer Law in Europe..... 73
Bert Keirsbilck

1 Introduction	73
2 Centralisation and Decentralisation Forces in the Field of Consumer Protection.....	74
3 Limits of Open–Textured EC (Consumer) Law in a System of Decentralised Enforcement	78
4 How to Deal with these Limits?	81
5 Conclusion.....	87

Chapter 6 – The Limits of Legality in the Criminal Law 89
Erik Claes and Michal Krolkowski

1 Introduction	89
2 Legality and its Underlying Values	91
3 Contemporary Society and the Limits of Legality.....	93
4 Legality and the Limits of the Criminal Law	100
5 How to Respond to the Limits of Legality?.....	103

Chapter 7 – Corporate Wrongdoing and the Limits of the Criminal Law.. 109
Mark Fenwick

1 Introduction	109
2 The Normative Limits of the Criminal Law: Identifying Moral Fault in Cases of Corporate Wrong–Doing.....	113
3 The Conceptual and Practical Limits of the Criminal Law: A Critical Examination of Corporate Criminal Liability	116
4 Conclusion.....	122

Chapter 8 – Regulating Prison Life: A Case Study of the Inmate Disciplinary System 125
Luc Robert

1 Introduction	125
2 Prison Discipline: The ‘Law in Books’	126
3 The Social Setting of the Prison	129
4 Prison Discipline, Discretion and Authority.....	132
5 Conclusion: The Disciplinary System as a Regulatory Resource.....	140

Chapter 9 – Criminal Law, Victims, and the Limits of Therapeutic Consequentialism 143
Tom Daems

1 Introduction	143
2 Curing Criminals	145
3 Birth (and Death) of a Metaphor: Healing Victims	147
4 Strange Bed–Fellows? Restorative Justice and Capital Punishment	148
5 Limits of Therapeutic Consequentialism.....	157
6 Conclusion.....	160

Chapter 10 – Restorative Justice, Freedom, and the Limits of the Law..... 161
Johan Deklerck

1 Introduction	161
2 Delinquency as an Interruption in the Flow of Life	163
3 The Heteronomous versus the Autonomous Life–Sphere	164
4 Internalist versus Externalist Ethics	167
5 Enhancing Personal Freedom and the Limits of the Criminal Law.....	169
6 Mediation and Restoring Personal Freedom	170
7 Conclusion: Seeking Complementarity between Victim–Offender Mediation and the Criminal Law	174

Chapter 11 – Rebuilding Trust in the Former Yugoslavia:
Overcoming the Limits of the Formal Justice System 177
Marta Valiñas

1 Introduction	177
2 Trust and the Law.....	178
3 In Practice: How Well Can Law Serve Trust?	182
4 Acknowledgement and Trust: What Does a Restorative Approach Have to Offer?	185
5 Conclusion.....	188

Chapter 12 – Legitimacy in the European Union and the Limits of the Law 189
Stefanie Dierckxsens

1 Introduction	189
2 The Paradox in European Integration: A Growing Gap between Legal and Social Legitimacy.....	190
3 Explaining the Paradoxical Gap: The Normative Legitimacy Deficit.....	194

4 How to Deal with these Limits? Bridging the Gap: The EU in Search of Normative Legitimacy	201
5 Conclusion	204

Chapter 13 – The Limits of the Law and the Development of the EU 205

René Foqué and Jacques Steenbergen

1 Introduction	205
2 The Development of the EU and Globalisation	207
3 The Constitutional State and the Limits of Power	212
4 The Development of the EU and the Limits of the Law	218
5 Have we Reached the Limits of the Law?	228
6 Conclusion	234

Chapter 14 – The Limits of Substantive International Economic Law: In Support of Reasonable Extraterritorial Jurisdiction 237

Cedric Ryngaert

1 Introduction	237
2 Extraterritorial Jurisdiction	238
3 The Substantivist Approach	239
4 Substantivism in Practice	240
5 The Limits of Substantivism	243
6 Extraterritorial Jurisdiction Revisited	246
7 Conclusion: Limits in a Communicative Setting	252

Chapter 15 – When Law Meets Power: The Limits of Public International Law and the Recourse to Military Force..... 253

Tom Ruys

1 Introduction	253
2 Theories on International Law and Power	254
3 Factors Inducing Compliance with International Law	259
4 The Relevance of the Ius ad Bellum	262
5 Conclusion	272

Chapter 16 – Is the Rule of Law a Limit on Popular Sovereignty? 273

David Haljan

1 Introduction	273
2 The Problem of Boundaries	276
3 The Rule of Law	278
4 Border Crossing: From Law to Sovereignty	283
5 Popular Sovereignty and Normativity	285

6 Sovereignty and Boundaries.....	287
7 The Normativity and Law	291
8 Symbolisation and Law's Limiting Power	293
9 Conclusion: The Addressee's Perspective and Substantive Limits on Sovereignty	295

Chapter 17 – Constitutional Ideals, National Identity, and the Limits of the Law 299
Bram Delbeke

1 Introduction	299
2 Dealing with the Past by Ruling One's Own Identity: Freedom of the Press in the Belgian Constitution (1830–31)	300
3 Dealing with Challengers to Belgian Society: Practising Press Law in 19th Century Belgium.....	305
4 Liberty, Identity, and their Mutual Limits: The Discourse on the Freedom of the Press in 19th Century Belgium	307
5 No More Heroes: The Changes to Freedom of the Press as a Result of an Evolving Perception of World and Mankind	311
6 Conclusion and Epilogue.....	312

Chapter 18 – Privacy Rights as Human Rights: No Limits? 315
Aagje Ieven

1 Introduction	315
2 Open Texture and Judicial Interpretation of Article 8 ECHR	316
3 The Positivist Perspective	321
4 The Constructivist Perspective	325
5 A Remedy for the Protective Limits of Privacy Rights as Human Rights?.....	329
6 Conclusion.....	332

Chapter 19 – The Limits of the International Petition Right for Individuals: A Case Study of the ECtHR..... 333
Willem Verrijdt

1 Introduction	333
2 The International Right of Individual Petition	333
3 Limits of Legal Protection.....	336
4 Solutions.....	345
5 Conclusion.....	353

Chapter 20 – The Limits of Human Rights Law in Human Development..... 355
Wouter Vandenhoele

1 Introduction	355
2 Promising Tales: Innovative Human Rights Approaches to Development	357
3 Limits of the Law	364
4 Conclusion.....	374

Chapter 21 – Limits of Human Rights Protection from the Perspective of Legal Anthropology 375
Stijn Deklerck, Ellen Desmet, Marie–Claire Foblets, Joke Kusters and Jogchum Vrielink

1 Introduction	375
2 First Illustration: Racism and the Limits of the (Criminal) Law (J. Vrielink)	378
3 Second Illustration: Worlds Apart Together: The Limits of Human Rights Protection for Indigenous Peoples (E. Desmet)	391
4 Third Illustration: Confucian Tradition and Socio–Economic Rights Protection in Contemporary China (S. Deklerck)	398
5 Fourth Illustration: Judaism between Religious Freedom and Gender Equality (J. Kusters)	407
6 Conclusion: Human Rights Bound to Remain Inadequate?	412

Chapter 22 – Functions and Limits of Patent Law..... 415
Geertrui Van Overwalle and Esther van Zimmeren

1 Introduction	415
2 Current Trends in Patent Law.....	416
3 Objectives and Functions of Patent Law	421
4 Limits of Patent Law	424
5 Remedies to Limits in Patent Law	430
6 Conclusion.....	441

Chapter 23 – Technology and the End of Law..... 443
Mireille Hildebrandt

1 Introduction	443
2 The ‘Internet of Things’.....	444
3 Technological Normativity.....	451
4 A Generic Theory of Legal and Technological Normativity?	455
5 Towards a Generic Theory of Legal and Technological Norms.....	459
6 The End of Law?	460
7 Conclusion.....	464

Chapter 24 – Darknets and the Future of Freedom of Expression in the Information Society	465
Hans Graux
1 Introduction	465
2 Darknets and the Appeal of Unlimited Freedom of Expression	469
3 Technology, Code and Conflict: How to Get The Darknet Back into the Bottle	476
4 Conclusion: Can the Turn of the Tide Be Stopped?	485
Chapter 25 – Facing the Limits of the Law (Conclusion)	487
Erik Claes and Bert Keirsbilck
1 Introduction	487
2 Late–Modernity and the Limits of the Law	490
3 Revisiting the Functions of the Law	499
4 Revisiting the Characteristics of the Law	501
5 The Human Condition and Limits of the Law	510
6 How to Deal Responsibly with the Limits of the Law?	516
List of Contributors	527

Facing the Limits of the Law

Claes, E.; Devroe, W.; Keirsbilck, B. (Eds.)

2009, XV, 533 p. 5 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-540-79855-2