

Contents

1 Introduction: Trial Consulting from a Psycholegal Perspective.....	1
Richard L. Wiener and Brian H. Bornstein
Part I Applied Research Methodologies for Trial Consultants
2 Systematic Jury Selection.....	13
Caroline B. Crocker and Margaret Bull Kovera
3 “May It Please the Court...” A Social-Cognitive Primer on Persuasion in Legal Contexts.....	33
Bradley D. McAuliff, Leslie Ellis, and Mark Phillips
4 Questions About the Jury: What Trial Consultants Should Know About Jury Decision Making.....	63
Ryan J. Winter and Timothy Robicheaux
5 The Use of Survey Research in Trial Consulting	93
Twila Wingrove, Angela Korpas, and Robert F. Belli
6 Misconceptions About Statistics and Statistical Evidence	121
Jonathan J. Koehler
Part II Witness Preparation and Effective Testimony
7 The Admissibility of Expert Witness Testimony	137
Marc W. Pearce
8 Selecting Experts.....	173
Mark R. Cambron
9 Demonstrative Evidence: Evidence and Technology in the Courtroom.....	187
Erin M. Richter and Amy M. Humke

10 Enhanced Persuasion in the Courtroom: Visually Dynamic Demonstrative Evidence and Juror Decision Making	203
Robert J. Nemeth

Part III Specific Interdisciplinary Topics in Trial Consulting

11 Pretrial Publicity and the Jury: Research and Methods	217
Lisa M. Spano, Jennifer L. Groscup, and Steven D. Penrod
12 Trial Consulting and Discrimination Law: An Untapped Opportunity	245
Richard L. Wiener
13 Consulting on Damage Awards	281
Brian H. Bornstein and Edie Greene
14 Neuropsychological Concerns	297
William Drew Gouvier, Heather A. Stewart, and Adrienne M. Brennan

Part IV Professional Issues

15 Training of Trial Consultants	331
Veronica Stinson and Brian L. Cutler
16 Trial Consulting and Conflicts of Interest: An Introduction	351
Dennis P. Stolle and Christina A. Studebaker
17 Reform Proposals	371
Franklin Strier
18 A Lawyer's View of Trial Consulting	393
Juliana Reno

<http://www.springer.com/978-1-4419-7568-3>

Handbook of Trial Consulting

Wiener, R.L.; Bornstein, B.H. (Eds.)

2011, X, 409 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4419-7568-3