

Contents

Shuttling Nomads in Mobile Times	1
An Age of Mobilities	1
The Shuttling Nomads	2
Research Methodology	5
Defining the Subject.....	5
In-Depth Interviews	5
Our Informant's Background	6
Methodology: Difficulties and Limitations.....	8
Identity, Interpersonal Networking and Enterprise Management.....	11
Some Notes on Identity.....	11
Personal Identity and Interpersonal Networks	14
Interpersonal Networking and Corporate Management.....	18
Some Critical Notes on the Literature	24
Seven Vignettes.....	29
Wing: In the Company of Fujianese People	30
Shin: Economy Plus Ethics.....	36
Yam: Survival of the Better Identified	42
Chiu: Do As the Chinese Do.....	47
Chai: Circuiting and Staying.....	52
Siu: A Road to Dignity	57
Chuk: Life of a Traveller.....	60
Conclusion	66
The Spatial Triangulation of Immigrant Entrepreneurship	69
Forced Construction of "Ethnic Niches"	69
Sameness and Difference: The Return of the Native	75
Leaving or Staying: Hong Kong as a Border City	83
Conclusion	88

Associations: Mediating Self-Identities	91
Network Institutionalisation and the Formation of Ethnic Groups.....	91
You and Me: Personal Feelings and Ethics.....	96
Officialdom and Business	99
Conclusion	104
 The Double-Edged Sword: Mobility and Entrepreneurship	107
Mobility and Entrepreneurial Spirit.....	107
The Shuttling Nomads: One Face, Many Masks	111
Family and Work: Sentiments and Swords.....	121
Summary	130
 Conclusion	135
What is New?.....	138
The Sociological Perspective.....	144
Theory to Practice: Getting Down to Earth	151
 Epilogue	157
 Index	161

Mobile Chinese Entrepreneurs

Kwok-bun, C.; Wai-wan, C.

2011, XII, 165 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4419-9642-8