

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xxix
 Part I The Theory of Capitalism	 1
Prologue Chestertown, Maryland, as an “English” Village
1 Introduction	11
2 The Concept of Capitalism	27
3 Capitalism and Democracy	67
Co-authored by Sarah Potvin
4 Alternative Models of Capitalism	111
 Part II The Origins and Evolution of Capitalism, 1400–1830	 139
Prologue The Mystery of Governance
5 Creating Capitalism in Europe, 1400–1820	141
6 From Feudalism to Oligarchy in Latin America, 1500–1830	185
7 Creating Capitalism and Democracy in the United States, 1630–1830	227
Co-authored by Sarah Potvin
 Part III Political Obstacles to Capitalist Development	 277
Prologue The Arizona Market: A Case Study in “Nation”-Building
8 Italy as “One Country, Two Systems”	287
Co-authored by Jamie Matthews

9 The United States as “One Country, Two Systems”	309
Co-authored by Jamie Matthews
Part IV The Economic Strategies of Capitalist Systems	333
Prologue Economic Strategies
10 Import Substitution as an Economic Strategy	337
11 The Washington Consensus	357
12 Neo-Mercantilist or Enhanced Mobilization Strategies	377
Part V The Evolution of US Capitalism and Democracy, 1830–2009	423
Prologue Transformations in the Governance of US Capitalism and Democracy
13 The Transformation of US Capitalism and Democracy, 1830–1937	427
Co-authored by Linnea N. Meyer
14 The Transformation of US Capitalism and Democracy, 1965–2009	515
Conclusions	585
Epilogue The Financial Crisis of 2007–2009	615
Appendix The Capitalist Firm in a Regulated Environment	635
About the Author	641
Bibliography	643
Index	657

<http://www.springer.com/978-1-4614-1878-8>

Capitalism

Its Origins and Evolution as a System of Governance

Scott, B.R.

2011, XXXV, 672 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4614-1878-8