

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Overview	1
1.1.1	Cooperation and Convergence	1
1.1.2	International Competition Enforcement Law and Global Administrative Law	3
1.2	The Term “International Competition Enforcement Law”	4
1.2.1	General Remarks on the Term “Enforcement”	4
1.2.2	International Competition Enforcement Law: A Definition	5
2	“Cooperation” as Guiding Principle of International Competition Enforcement Law	9
2.1	Fundamentals of Cooperation	10
2.1.1	Globalization of Competition Restraints	11
2.1.2	Globalization of Competition Policy?	13
2.2	Forms of Cooperation	14
2.2.1	Networks	14
2.2.2	“Classical” Administrative Cooperation	17
2.2.3	Cooperation Beyond the Limits of Authority	17
2.2.4	Cooperation with Private Entities	18
2.3	The Limits of Cooperation	18
2.3.1	Differences in Procedures	19
2.3.2	Fundamental and Human Rights	19
2.3.3	Transparency Requirements	20
2.3.4	Legal Protection	21
2.3.5	Lack of Binding Nature	21
3	Convergence of International Competition Enforcement Law	23
3.1	Convergence of Substantive Standards	23
3.2	Convergence on the Level of Enforcement?	23
3.2.1	Criminal Enforcement	24

3.2.2	Effective Enforcement by Use of Leniency Programmes	24
3.2.3	Private Enforcement	25
3.2.4	Expansion of Governmental Cooperation	26
3.2.5	Convergence and Divergence of Norms Securing Fundamental Rights	26
3.2.6	The Effects Doctrine as a Global Criterion for Jurisdiction	26
3.2.7	Reduction of Areas of Exception	27
3.2.8	The Role of State-Owned Companies	27
3.2.9	International Free Trade Agreements and Regional Economic Integration	27
3.3	Sources of Law of Converging Procedural Law	30
3.3.1	The Level of Public International Law	30
3.3.2	The Level of Regional Economic Integration Treaties	32
3.3.3	The Level of European Law	32
3.3.4	The Role of the ECHR	35
3.3.5	The Level of National Law	35
3.4	Scope of Application of National Rules	39
3.4.1	Possible Links for the Scope of Application	40
3.4.2	Current Dominance of the Effects Doctrine	42
3.4.3	Personal Scope of the Application of National Laws	43
3.4.4	Exemptions	44
3.5	Actors	47
3.5.1	Variety of Authorities as Initial Perspective	48
3.5.2	Differences Between Authorities	50
3.5.3	A World Antitrust Authority as Platform of Coordination?	57
3.5.4	Role of the Courts	58
3.5.5	Privates	58
3.6	Variety and Uniformity of Proceedings	59
3.6.1	Administrative Proceeding	59
3.6.2	Court Proceedings	63
4	Procedural Convergence Through Cooperation?	67
4.1	Contents of Cooperation	67
4.2	Emerging Global Enforcement Standards?	68
4.2.1	Role of the International Competition Network	69
4.2.2	Role of the OECD	69
4.2.3	Role of UNCTAD	69
4.2.4	Claim to Self-Determination by National Law as an Obstacle	70
4.3	World Competition Enforcement Law in the Making?	70
4.3.1	DIAC as a Paragon?	70
4.3.2	The Role of Politics	72
5	Summary	75
	References	79

International Competition Enforcement Law Between
Cooperation and Convergence

Terhechte, J.P.

2011, XIII, 96 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-642-17166-6