

Contents

1	Indigenous and Intersecting: People of African Descent
	in LGBT Psychology	1
	Intersectional Invisibility	2
	Indigenous Psychology from Within	3
	Significance of Culture and Interpersonal Factors
	as Black Issues	8
	Intersectionality Research	11
	ADDRESSING Model	13
	Advancing the Study of People of African Descent
	in LGBT Psychology	13
	“Queer” Studies Programs	13
	The Role of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs)	14
	Sociopolitical Issues.....	15
	Conclusion	15
	Recommended Readings.....	16
	References.....	16
2	Gender and Black Communities	21
	Gender Non-conformity and Transgression as Metaphysical.....	23
	Traditional Gender Roles and Identity in Black Culture	24
	Persons of African Descent: Gender Transgressions
	and the Metaphysical	26
	Drag, Negro Faggotry, and Other Gender Transgressions.....	28
	MIAKAS.....	30
	Negro Faggotry and Patriarchal Parody	31
	Conclusion	33
	Recommended Readings.....	34
	References.....	34

3 Religion and Spirituality	37
How Religion Became Salient for Blacks in America.....	38
Racism and Ancestral Baggage	40
Silencing and Shame Effects.....	43
Self Discrepancy Theory.....	44
Diverse Black Sexuality	46
Diversity of Religious/Spiritual Significance and the Lives of LGBT people of African Descent	47
Black Liberation Theology and Psychosocial Relevance	50
Mind and Spirit	52
Conclusion	52
Recommended Readings.....	53
References.....	54
 4 New “Outsiders”: Black Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Students in a Historically Black University Context	 57
Existential Psychology and Happiness	58
Active Coping	59
Psychosocial Competence Model	60
Method	61
Participants.....	61
Procedure	61
Thematic Analysis	62
Results.....	63
Theme 1: Helping Ourselves, and Helping Others Learn About Us.....	64
Theme 2: “Being Black Matters”, Negative Statements and Lack of Acceptance.....	65
Theme 3: “I Am Going to Be Me”.....	65
Theme 4: “I May Be Non-Gender Conforming at Times, BUT...”	66
Theme 5: “We Can and Will Fight!”	67
Theme 6: “No Formal Resources Are Here for Us. We Informally Meet Other LGB Students”	68
Theme 7: “I Believe in God But...”	69
Theme 8: “My Family? We’ve Had Conflict Regarding My Identity”	70
Theme 9: “My Family? They Know, but We Don’t Talk About It”	70
Theme 10: “We Need More Campus Resources and LGBT Education in the Black Community”	71
Discussion	73
Recommended Readings.....	77
References.....	78

5	Black Gay Men of the South: Research Implications and E. Patrick Johnson's Sweet Tea	81
	Oral Tradition and Black Culture	82
	Johnson's Themes in Sweet Tea	83
	Growing Up Black and Gay in the South (Theme 1)	84
	Coming Out and Turning the Closet Inside Out (Theme 2)	86
	Gayness and the Black Church (Theme 3)	88
	Homosex in the South (Theme 4)	90
	Transitioning the South (Theme 5)	93
	Love and Relationships in the South (Theme 6)	94
	Black Gay Men Across Generations (Theme 7)	95
	Conclusion	96
	Recommended Readings	97
	References	97
6	Sexual Minority Women of African Descent	101
	Feminist Standpoint Theory	102
	Marginality	104
	Identity	106
	Female Same-Sex Attracted South African Healers	107
	Diverse Voices	109
	Bisexual Women/Women Who Sleep with Women	110
	Greene's Perspective on the Use of Feminist-Psychodynamic Approaches	113
	Mothering and Black Lesbianism	114
	Conclusion	115
	Recommended Readings	116
	References	116
7	Cultural Complexities and Conflict	119
	Vulnerability	120
	Vulnerability: What About Black LGBT Families?	121
	Superiority	124
	Distrust	126
	Injustice	130
	Injustice and Black Fem Queens/Nu Women	130
	Helplessness	131
	Helplessness and Domestic Violence	132
	Conclusion	134
	Recommended Readings	135
	References	135
8	Covering, Cultural-Centrism, and Liberation Psychology	139
	Covering	140
	The Asylum Dilemma: Reverse Covering	141
	Culture-Centrism	142

Cultural Hegemony	144
Fear and Persuasion	145
Disgust Reactions.....	146
Shame and Rejection.....	146
When People Cannot Be Who They Are	147
Afropessimism	148
Liberation Psychology	149
Progress.....	149
Conclusion	150
Recommended Readings.....	151
References.....	152
9 Urban and Rural Challenges	155
Social Cognition: Impression Management Theory	156
Technology.....	157
Communities.....	163
The Significance of Race	164
Relationships.....	166
Social Stigma, Impression Management, and Fragmentation	169
Conclusion	170
Recommended Readings.....	171
References.....	171
10 Education, Research, and Community Services	175
Education	176
Cultural Issues.....	178
Research.....	179
Community Services.....	181
Dr. Peter Ji Interview, PFLAG, Chicago.....	182
Kimberly Hunt Interview, Affinity Community Services.....	185
Out Like Us – PFLAG Winston Salem	189
Young Black Ellument – The Dallas Experiment.....	191
Conclusion and Next Steps	192
Recommended Readings.....	193
References.....	193
Index.....	197

LGBT Psychology

Research Perspectives and People of African Descent

Lewis, M.K.; Marshall, I.

2012, XXIV, 200 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4614-0564-1