

Contents

1	Criticism of the Accounting-Based Measures of Performance	1
1.1	Introduction	1
1.2	Inaccuracy and Subjectivity of the Accounting Numbers	2
1.3	Nonalignment with the Goal of Maximizing Shareholder Wealth	3
1.4	Short Termism of Managerial Decision-Making	7
	References	7
2	Competing Financial Performance Measures.	9
2.1	Trends in Performance Measurement	9
2.2	Economic Value Measures	13
2.2.1	The General Framework	13
2.2.2	Economic Value Added (EVA).	18
2.2.3	Cash Flow Return on Investment (CFROI).	24
2.2.4	Shareholder Value Added (SVA)	27
2.2.5	Economic Margin (EM).	28
2.2.6	Cash Value Added (CVA)	29
	References	30
3	The Metrics War	33
3.1	Overstated Claims?	33
3.2	The Association Between Economic Value Measures and Stock Returns	35
3.3	The Association Between Economic Value Measures and DCF	43
3.4	Managerial Implications of the Economic Value Measures.	50
	References	59

4	Concluding Remarks: Strengths and Weaknesses of the Economic Value Measures	61
4.1	Introduction	61
4.2	A Quick Comparison of the Economic Value Measures	62
	References	69
	Appendix 1: Formulas of CFROI	71
	Appendix 2: Excess Investor Return in Terms of EVA	73

Financial Performance Measures and Value Creation: the State of the Art

VENANZI, D.

2012, XI, 73 p. 3 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-88-470-2450-2