

Contents

1	Pre-Confederation Settlement Activities	1
	In the Beginning	1
	Protect the Emigrant; Protect Yourself	1
2	Post-Confederation Settlement Activities to 1945	7
	Sorting Out the Jurisdictions	7
	Dominion Government Initiatives	8
	The Last Best West	11
	Between the Wars	12
3	The Settlement Service and the Citizenship Branch	19
	Demise of the Settlement Service	23
4	Creation of the Settlement Program	27
	Improvements to the Settlement Program	30
	Organizational Challenges	32
5	Constitutional Issues and Settlement in Québec	35
	The Meech Lake Accord	35
	The Charlottetown Accord	36
	The Canada-Québec Immigration Accord	36
6	Repatriation of the Settlement Program	39
7	Program Review and Settlement Renewal	43
	Trying to Give it Away	43
	Consultations and Negotiations	44
	Implications of Program Review at Human Resources	46
	The Settlement Allocation Model	47

8	Solving the Funding Issues	49
	The Canada-Ontario Immigration Agreement	49
	Other Provinces Catch Up.	50
	Resettlement Assistance Program.	51
9	Foreign Credential Recognition.	55
10	Emerging Issues and the New Terms and Conditions.	59
	Francophone Immigration Outside Québec	59
	Settlement Services Abroad.	60
	Enhanced Language Training	61
	Welcoming Communities Initiative	61
	Local Immigration Partnerships	62
	Contribution Accountability Framework	62
	New Terms and Conditions	63
	The Transfer of the Multiculturalism Program to CIC	63
11	Summary and Conclusion.	65
	Appendix 1: Canadian Immigration Halls	69
	Bibliography	73
	Endnotes.	79
	Index	89

Responding to Immigrants' Settlement Needs: The Canadian Experience

Vineberg, R.

2012, XIV, 91 p. 15 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-94-007-2687-1