

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	The Importance of Business Format Franchising	3
	Definitions	4
	Conclusion	8
2	The Franchisor	11
	Franchisor as Supplier	18
	Franchisor's Approaches to Managing Risk	20
3	The Franchise Network: Legal Fabric of a Global Player	25
	The Franchisor's Identity Within a Network	27
	Franchisor's Trademarks	28
	Franchisors and the Owners of Franchisees' Premises	32
	Conclusion	39
4	The Franchisee	41
	A Contracting Party	43
	A Consumer in a Competitive Market	45
	Categorisation of Work Arrangements	48
	Employee or Independent Contractor?	48
	Features of Relationship When Franchisee Is Involved	55
	Behavioural Control of Franchisees/Terms of Engagement	56
	Financial Control of Franchisees	60
	Type of Relationship Between Franchisors and Franchisees	62
	Summary of Features	64
	Relevance of Categorisation	65
	Incorrect Classification in Contract of Appointment	65
	Consumer Protection	66
	Goodwill	66
	Occupational Health and Safety	67
	Insolvency	67
	Conclusion	68

5 Contract Law	69
The Desirability of Certainty in Contracts	71
Freedom of Contract	71
A Standard Form Business Consumer Contract	72
Relational Contract	75
Incomplete Contract	77
Exploitative Contract	79
Consequential Contracts	80
Conclusion	81
6 Asymmetry in the Franchisor/Franchisee Relationship	85
Information Asymmetry	86
Adviser Asymmetry	89
Education and Regulator Asymmetry	90
Risk and Reward Asymmetry	93
Resource Asymmetry	95
Contract Asymmetry	97
Regulatory Asymmetry	98
Conclusion	100
7 Corporate Governance	101
Introduction	101
Principles	103
OECD	103
ASX	104
Specific Areas	105
Conflicts of Interest	105
Succession Planning	105
Corporate Governance of Listed Franchisors	106
The Future	109
8 Franchisor Failure	111
Introduction	111
What is Insolvency?	112
Role of Administrators	113
Role of Liquidators	113
Data on Failed Franchisors	115
Why Franchisors Fail	117
Reasons Why Some Australian Franchisors Failed	118
Trading While Insolvent	120
Strategic Insolvency	120
Indicators of Impending Franchisor Insolvency	123
Case Study: Angus & Robertson	125
Collateral Damage: Gloria Jean's Within Borders Stores	128
Franchisees in the Franchisors Insolvency	128
What Would Make a Franchisee a Debtor?	130

What Would Make a Franchisee a Creditor?	130
What Franchisee Expenses Cannot Be Recovered?.....	131
Ongoing Rights and Obligations of Franchisees	131
Why Franchisor Angus & Robertson Failed.....	133
Should Franchisees Have Anticipated Insolvency?	134
Retail Lease Issues.....	135
Trademark Issues	137
International Dimensions.....	139
Effectiveness of Current Law	140
Litigation Embargo During Administration.....	146
Statutory Prohibition Against Misleading and Deceptive Conduct.....	147
Disclosure Under Franchising Code of Conduct	148
Attitude of Administrators of Insolvent Franchisors to Code.....	151
Responses Available to Franchisees.....	151
Stepping Back to Make Progress	152
9 Solutions to Risks Franchisees Face.....	155
What Is the Context in Which Consumer Protection Functions?	156
Benchmarks.....	158
B1: Regulation Should Provide Effective Protection from Serious Risks and Threats That Franchisees as Consumers Cannot Tackle as Individuals.....	159
B2: There Should Be Accessible, Timely and Meaningful Redress Where Consumer Detriment Has Occurred	162
B3: The Cost to the Franchisor and the Legal System of Meeting B1 and B2 Should Be Less Than the Benefit to Franchisees Whose Franchisor Fails.....	164
Non-regulatory Solutions.....	165
Status Quo.....	165
Education	165
Make Franchise Agreements Accessible.....	166
Franchisee Union	166
Insurance	167
Reconfigure Some Obligations	168
Deem Franchisors to Be Trustees	168
Standard Form Franchise Agreements to Address Risks	168
Regulatory Solutions.....	169
Consumer Protection Legislation.....	170
Unconscionable Conduct s 22 ACL Under the CCA.....	170
Imply Terms into All Franchise Agreements via a Franchise Contracts Act	171
10 Concluding Remarks	183
Index.....	189

Franchisees as Consumers
Benchmarks, Perspectives and Consequences
Buchan, J.
2013, X, 198 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-1-4614-5613-1