Part I Setting the Scene

1	Enclosure and Monumentality: Hillforts in British and European Late Prehistory	3
1.1	Hillforts in Britain and Europe	4
1.1.1	Form and Classification	5
1.1.2	Chronology	5
1.2	Enclosure	6
1.3	Monumentality	8
1.4	Conclusions	10
2	Castell Henllys in Its Temporal, Cultural, and Intellectual Contexts	11
2.1	The Spatial and Cultural Context of Castell Henllys in the Past	12
2.1.1	Iron Age Castell Henllys	12
2.1.2	Castell Henllys in the Late Iron Age and Roman Period	17
2.1.3	Castell Henllys in the Late Roman or Post-Roman Period	18
2.1.4	Castell Henllys from the Middle Ages to the End of the Twentieth Century	19
2.2	Spatial and Cultural Contexts of Castell Henllys in the Early Twenty-First Century AD	20
2.3	Biography of Excavation: Developing Excavation Research Designs	25
2.3.1	Initial Research Design	25
2.3.2	The Basic Defensive Sequence and the First Internal Structures	25
2.3.3	The Interior and the Annexe	27
2.4	The Chronology of Settlement	31
2.5	Methodologies of Excavation and Recording	36
2.6	Taphonomy, Survival, and the Limits of the Evidence	37
2.6.1	Artefacts and Ecofacts	38
2.6.2	Deposits	39
2.6.3	The Ditches	40
2.7	Perceptions, Experience, Knowledge, and Interpretation	41
2.8	The Purpose of This Book	42
2.9	Other Modes of Dissemination	42
2.9.1	Dissemination to Archaeologists	42
2.9.2	Dissemination to Other Interested Parties	43
2.10	Conclusions	45

Part II The Palisaded Settlement

3 The Palisade and Entrance	49
3.1 Introduction	49
3.2 The Palisade and Entrance	50
3.2.1 The Southern Evidence	51
3.2.2 The Eastern Evidence	53
3.2.3 The Northeastern Evidence	55
3.2.4 The Western Evidence	56
3.2.5 The Northwestern Evidence	57
3.2.6 The Northern Evidence	59
3.3 Modifications to the Topography and Structured Deposition	61
3.4 The Entrance	63
3.4.1 Palisade Entrance 1	64
3.4.2 Palisade Entrance 2	66
3.4.3 Palisade and Western Rampart 1	67
3.4.4 Palisade and Western Rampart 2	67
3.4.5 Palisade and Western Rampart 3	69
3.5 Destruction at the Entrance	71
4 The Interior: Roundhouses, Scoops, and Activity Areas	73
4.1 Roundhouse 4268	73
4.2 Pre-palisade or Early Palisade Phase Roundhouses	74
4.3 External Activity Areas	74
4.3.1 East of Roundhouse 4268	75
4.3.2 West of Roundhouse 4268	75
4.3.3 Scooped Hollows and Metalworking on the East	77
4.3.4 Scoop 4517 and Activities Within It	77
4.3.5 Beyond the Scoop 4517	80
4.3.6 Last Phases Before Rampart 4470	80
4.3.7 Scoop 4524	80
4.3.8 Activity South of Rampart Terminal	82
4.3.9 Scoops 9040 and 9039 South of Scoop 4517	85
4.3.10 Scooped Hollows on the West	86
4.3.11 The Buried Soil	88
4.4 Conclusions	89
5 A Boundary in Stones: The Chevaux-de-Frise	91
5.1 Description	93
5.2 Date and Place in the Site Layout	96
5.3 Discussion of the Chevaux-de-Frise in its Castell Henllys Context	98
5.4 The Castell Henllys Chevaux-de-Frise in its Wider Context	101
6 The Palisaded Settlement: Its Size, Character and Environmental Impact	103
6.1 Topography, Overall Site Size and Possible Entrances	103
6.1.1 The Northern Post and Rail Fence Model	105
6.1.2 The Inner Palisade Model	106
6.1.3 Outer Palisade Model	107
6.1.4 Discussion of the Models	107
6.2 Chronology and Contemporaneity	108

6.3	Palisade Construction and its Resource and Landscape Implications	110
6.3.1	Historic Woodland Management and Production Figures	111
6.3.2	Forms of Coppicing	113
6.3.3	The Stone Required for the Palisade Trench	113
6.3.4	The Stone Required for the Chevaux-de-Frise	114
6.4	Comparisons with Other Regional Palisaded Settlements	114
6.5	The Palisaded Enclosure: Functional Necessities and Psychological Desires	115
6.6	Conclusions	117

Part III Ramparts and Ditches

7	Previous Research on Hillfort Ramparts and Ditches	121
7.1	Previous Attitudes to and Results from Hillfort Excavations	121
7.2	Changing Interpretations of Iron Age Earthworks	123
7.2.1	Culture-History	123
7.2.2	Functionalism and Processualism	124
7.2.3	Post-processualism	125
7.2.4	The Return of Events	126
7.3	The Research Context of Welsh and Regional Hillfort Studies	127
7.4	Discoveries at Castell Henllys	128
8	Ramparts and Ditches on the Western Side of the Fort	131
8.1	The Gravel Rampart 3693 West of the Entrance	131
8.1.1	The Construction of Rampart 3693	132
8.1.2	Ditch 3416	135
8.1.3	The Front of Rampart 3693	136
8.2	The Rampart, Scarp, and Ditch on the Northwest and West	138
8.2.1	Northwestern Rampart Sections	138
8.3	Ditch 4230 on the West	143
8.4	Discussion	145
9	The Building of a Rampart: Stratigraphy and Action Unpicked	147
9.1	Activities Prior to the Rampart Construction: Structured Depositions	148
9.1.1	Pit 4299	148
9.1.2	Depositions of Faunal Remains and Artefacts	152
9.2	Extensive Excavations Near the Northwestern Entrance	154
9.2.1	The Beginnings of Rampart 3714	156
9.2.2	The Continued Extension of Rampart 3714	158
9.2.3	Western Sequence Below [10]	159
9.2.4	Eastern Sequence Below [10]	159
9.2.5	Integrated Sequence, Layers [10] to [22]	160
9.2.6	Eastern Sequence Above [22]	161
9.2.7	Western Sequence Above [22]	163
9.2.8	Ditch Terminal 3716	165
9.3	Rampart 3714 to the Natural Gravel Knoll	167
9.3.1	The Central Stretch of the Rampart	167
9.3.2	The Main Trench Across the Earthworks	167
9.4	Rampart 3714 East of the Main Trench and the Southeastern Rampart Terminal	173
9.5	The Exterior Revetment Walling for Rampart 3714	175
9.6	Interior Drystone Revetments for Rampart 3714	175

9.7	The Outer Northeastern Rampart 1687 and Ditch 1740	178
9.7.1	The Outer Rampart 1687 and Ditch 1740 in the Main Trench	178
9.7.2	The Outer Rampart 1687 and Ditch 1740 at the Entrance	181
9.8	The Unexcavated Northeastern and Eastern Earthworks	182
9.9	Conclusions	183
10	Encircling the Promontory	185
10.1	The Southern Rampart, Ditch and Terrace	185
10.1.1	The Rampart	186
10.1.2	The Ditch, Scarping and Terrace	192
10.1.3	Discussion	194
10.2	Experimental Earthwork	194
10.2.1	Construction	195
10.2.2	The Results After 10 Years	198
10.2.3	Ditches	199
10.2.4	Conclusions	199
10.3	The Outworks	200
10.3.1	The Sequence of Study of the Castell Henllys Outworks	202
10.3.2	The Outer Northern Rampart and Ditch	203
10.3.3	Subdivision of the Annexe	209
10.3.4	The Western Flanks	210
10.4	Discussion	212
11	Ramparts and Ditches: Evidence and Inference	213
11.1	Scarping, Digging, Building	213
11.1.1	Rampart, Scarp and Ditch Stability	214
11.1.2	Dump Ramparts	215
11.2	The Logistics of Digging and Construction	220
11.2.1	The Use of Gangs	220
11.3	Building Earthworks over Ditch Edges	224
11.4	Stone Walling	226
11.5	Possible Phases	226
 Part IV The Entrances
12	Crossing Thresholds: Entrances in Stone	231
12.1	Period 2: The First Stone Phase	232
12.1.1	The Evidence for the Timber Structure of the Gateway	234
12.1.2	The Evidence for the Stone Structure of the Gateway	234
12.1.3	The Approach to the Gateway	239
12.1.4	The Appearance and Functioning of the Gateway	241
12.1.5	The Subsequent Changes to the Gateway and Its Approach	241
12.1.6	The Effects of the Changes on the Appearance and Functioning of the Gateway	244
12.1.7	The Collapse of the Gateway	244
12.1.8	Changes to the Outer Gateway Features	245
12.1.9	The Destruction of the Gateway	245
12.2	Period 3: Second Stone Phase	246
12.2.1	The Evidence for the Timber Structure of the Gateway	247
12.2.2	The Evidence for the Stone Structure of the Gateway	249

12.2.3	The Approach to the Gateway	251
12.2.4	The Appearance and Functioning of the Gateway.....	253
12.2.5	The Subsequent Changes of the Gateway and Its Approach	253
12.2.6	The Effects of the Changes on the Appearance and Functioning of the Gateway	257
12.2.7	The Collapse and Destruction of the Gateway	257
12.3	The Stone Gateway Periods: Some Conclusions.....	257
13	Crossing Thresholds: From Monumental to Non-monumental.....	259
13.1	Later Timber Phases at the Northwestern Entrance	259
13.1.1	Period 4: The Timber Gate	259
13.1.2	Timber Revetment on the Eastern Side of the Entrance	261
13.1.3	Period 5: No Gate	262
13.2	Side Entrances	262
13.2.1	The Western Side Entrance.....	262
13.2.2	The Eastern Side Entrance.....	265
13.3	The Outworks Entrances	267
13.3.1	The Northwestern Entrance	268
13.3.2	The Northeastern Entrance	270
13.3.3	The Northern Entrance	271
13.4	Conclusions	272
14	An Epilogue: The Late Roman or Post-Roman Refurbishment.....	275
14.1	The Northwestern Entrance.....	276
14.1.1	The Timber Gate.....	277
14.1.2	The Stone Walling at the Gate	278
14.1.3	The Gateway Approach	280
14.1.4	A Ditched Approach	281
14.2	Rear Revetment Walling.....	281
14.3	The Ditches Along the Sides of the Promontory	283
14.3.1	The Western Ditch 3306	283
14.3.2	The Eastern Ditch 4477	287
14.4	Discussion.....	288
14.4.1	The Defensive Scheme Including the Entrance	288
14.4.2	Dating	289
14.5	Conclusions	291

Part V Conclusions

15	Context, Function, Meaning.....	295
15.1	Introduction	295
15.2	Sequence.....	296
15.2.1	The Palisaded Settlement.....	296
15.2.2	Building the Earthworks	297
15.3	Their Mistakes or Our Misunderstandings?	299
15.4	Investments in Stone: The Entrance Ways	300
15.4.1	The First Stone Gateway.....	300
15.4.2	Fiery Intervention: Vitrification by Another Name	302
15.4.3	The Second Stone Gateway	303
15.4.4	Entrances, Guard Chambers and Wider Comparisons.....	303
15.4.5	Other Ways In and Out	304

15.5	Motivations for Monumental Enclosure.....	306
15.5.1	The Outworks	307
15.5.2	Neglect and Abandonment.....	307
15.5.3	Brief Revival	308
15.6	Narratives.....	309
15.6.1	Origin Myth 1	314
