

Contents

- 1 Food Online: An Introduction to a Complex Environment 1
 - 1.1 Introduction..... 1
 - 1.2 A Conceptual Mapping of Food Online..... 2
 - 1.3 Popular Food Websites..... 7
 - 1.4 Understanding Personal and Professional Uses of Food Websites by Individuals 11
 - 1.4.1 Case 1: Mrs. Q (Sarah Wu) 11
 - 1.4.2 Case 2: Yelp Elite Squad and Kelly “Reverend” S. (Kelly Stocker)..... 14
 - 1.4.3 Case 3: Joy the Baker (Joy Wilson) 18
 - 1.5 Popular Food Apps..... 19
 - 1.6 Conclusions 21
 - References 22
- 2 Anatomy of a Dot-Com Failure: The Case of Online Grocer Webvan 25
 - 2.1 Origins..... 25
 - 2.2 Operational Practices and Business Mistakes 26
 - 2.3 Demise..... 28
 - 2.4 Competitors in the Online Grocery Business..... 28
 - 2.5 Business Challenges and Opportunities for Online Grocers..... 31
 - 2.6 Conclusions 32
 - References 33
- 3 The Dark Side of Online Food Businesses: Harms to Consumers and Main Street Businesses..... 37
 - 3.1 Case 1: OpenTable 37
 - 3.2 Case 2: Groupon..... 39
 - 3.3 Case 3: Yelp 46
 - 3.4 Conclusions 53
 - References 54

4 Trust Online: From E-Commerce to Recipe Sharing	61
4.1 Early Community Reviewing Online	61
4.2 Finding and Sharing Recipes	63
4.2.1 The Community Review Model: Allrecipes	63
4.2.2 The Laboratory Testing Model: Cook's Illustrated	65
4.2.3 The Scientific Model: Nathan Myhrvold and Modernist Cuisine	67
4.2.4 The Expert Chef Model: Ten Famous Chefs.....	70
4.2.5 The Corporate Publishing Model: Conde Nast	72
4.2.6 The Corporate Food Products Model: Betty Crocker	73
4.3 Information Studies About Trust.....	74
4.4 Conclusions	76
References	77
Index.....	81

Food in the Internet Age

Aspray, W.; Royer, G.; Ocepek, M.G.

2013, XII, 83 p. 16 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-01597-2