

Contents

Introduction . . . . .	1
Overview About Living Organ Donation . . . . .	5
I. Problem of Organ Shortage . . . . .	5
1) Possibilities to Serve the Problem of Organ Shortage . . . . .	5
2) Impact of Living Organ Donation . . . . .	7
II. Basic Facts About Living Organ Donation . . . . .	9
1) Delimitation of Living Organ Donation and Post-Mortem Organ Donation . . . . .	9
2) Historical Overview . . . . .	10
3) Possible Organs for Living Organ Donation . . . . .	11
III. Terminology . . . . .	14
Comparative Analysis of European Transplant Laws Regarding Living Organ Donation . . . . .	15
I. Comparison of Laws . . . . .	15
1) Reasons for a Comparison of Laws . . . . .	16
2) Procedure of the Comparison . . . . .	17
3) Relevant National Sources of Law Included in the Comparison . . . .	20
4) European and International Level . . . . .	21
II. The Issues of Living Organ Donation in Need of Regulation . . . . .	24
1) Concept of Informed Consent . . . . .	24
2) Requirements with Regard to Informed Consent . . . . .	31
3) Suitability of the Transplantation . . . . .	67
4) Minors and Mentally Incapacitated Adults . . . . .	78
5) Restrictions on Living Organ Donation by Competent Adults . . . .	89
6) Subsidiarity . . . . .	112
7) Procedural Issues . . . . .	125
8) Social Security Regulations for Donors . . . . .	140
III. Summary . . . . .	145

Analysis of the Normative Arguments That Dominate the Policy Arena About Necessity and Legitimacy of Legal Restrictions

in Living Donor Transplantation . . . . .	147
I. Definition of the Problem . . . . .	147
II. Arguments Serving to Restrict Living Organ Donation . . . . .	148
1) The Harm-Argument . . . . .	149
2) Lack of Voluntariness . . . . .	165
3) The Social Pressure Argument . . . . .	173
4) Organ Trade . . . . .	176
5) Justice and Equality . . . . .	178
6) Special Groups of Potential Donors . . . . .	182
7) Arguments Against Specific Methods and Programmes to Increase Living Organ Donation . . . . .	183
8) Procedures . . . . .	198
III. Summary . . . . .	199
Actions of the European Union So Far . . . . .	201
I. Survey by the European Commission in 2003 . . . . .	201
II. Communication from the Commission to the European Parliament         and the Council – Organ Donation and Transplantation:         Policy Actions at EU Level . . . . .	202
1) Content of the Communication from the Commission to the             European Parliament and the Council – Organ Donation             and Transplantation: Policy Actions at EU Level . . . . .	202
2) Content of the Commission Staff Working Document, Accompanying             Document to the Communication from the Commission             to the European Parliament and the Council, Organ Donation             and Transplantation: Policy Actions at EU Level, Impact             Assessment . . . . .	204
3) Consequences of the Communication from the Commission             and the Commission Staff Working Document, Accompanying             Document to the Communication . . . . .	205
III. Resolutions from the European Parliament . . . . .	215
1) European Parliament Resolution of 22 April 2008 on Organ             Donation and Transplantation: Policy Actions at EU Level             (2007/2210 (INI)) . . . . .	215
2) European Parliament Resolution of 19 May 2010 on the             Commission Communication: Action Plan on Organ Donation             and Transplantation (2009–2015): Strengthened Cooperation             Between Member States (2009/2104(INI)) . . . . .	216
IV. Summary . . . . .	218

Possibilities of Harmonisation . . . . .	219
I. European Union as Subject to Harmonise Legislation Regarding Living Organ Donation . . . . .	220
1) WHO . . . . .	220
2) Council of Europe . . . . .	220
3) European Union . . . . .	222
II. General Competences of the European Union to Make Law . . . . .	222
1) General Principles . . . . .	223
2) Types of Competences . . . . .	225
3) Types of Legal Acts of the European Union . . . . .	227
III. Competences in the Field of Living Organ Donation . . . . .	231
1) Art. 168 Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union . . . . .	231
2) Art. 114 Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union . . . . .	241
3) Art. 9 Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union . . . . .	242
4) Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union . . . . .	242
5) Treaty of Lisbon . . . . .	245
6) Result . . . . .	247
IV. Soft Law . . . . .	248
1) Soft Law in General . . . . .	248
2) Soft Law for Living Organ Donation . . . . .	263
V. Result . . . . .	267
Best Practise Proposal for Living Organ Donation in the European Union . . . . .	269
I. Introduction: Procedure and Method . . . . .	269
II. Establishment of a Best Practise Proposal for Living Organ Donation in the European Union . . . . .	271
1) Informed Consent . . . . .	272
2) Suitability of the Transplantation . . . . .	278
3) Minors and Mentally Incapacitated Adults . . . . .	279
4) Restrictions on Living Organ Donation by Competent Adults . . . . .	281
5) Subsidiarity . . . . .	286
6) Procedural Issues . . . . .	287
7) Social Security Regulations for Donors . . . . .	294
III. Result . . . . .	296
Summary . . . . .	297
References . . . . .	307

Regulations Regarding Living Organ Donation in Europe
Possibilities of Harmonisation

Lopp, L.

2013, XIII, 331 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-642-33798-7