

Contents

1	Accomplishing Permanency: Reunification
	Pathways and Outcomes for Foster Children	1
1.1	Introduction	1
1.2	The Context of Child Protection and Out of Home Care	2
1.3	Background	3
1.4	International Research	4
1.5	Methodology	8
1.5.1	Research Aims	8
1.5.2	Research Design	8
1.5.3	Site of the Study and Participants	9
1.5.4	Data Collection	10
1.5.5	Data Analysis	11
	References	12
2	Family Characteristics and Histories	15
2.1	Child and Family Attributes and the Likelihood of Reunion	15
2.2	Family Profiles	16
2.3	Family Structure	17
2.4	Financial Pressures	20
2.5	Family Support Networks	21
2.6	Family Violence	24
2.7	History of Past Abuse	24
2.8	Domestic Violence	25
2.9	Physical and Mental Health Concerns	27
2.10	Substance Abuse	28
2.11	Physical Environment	28
2.12	Conclusion	29
	References	29

3	Reasons for Children Entering Care	31
3.1	Difficulties Experienced by Families that Precipitated Placement	31
3.2	Children Placed for Reasons of Abuse and Neglect.	33
3.2.1	Physical Abuse	33
3.2.2	Emotional Abuse	35
3.2.3	Sexual Abuse	36
3.2.4	Neglect	37
3.3	Parental Capacity as a Reason for Placement	39
3.3.1	Mental Health.	39
3.3.2	Substance Abuse.	40
3.3.3	Parents Ability to Cope	41
3.3.4	Lack of Social Support.	42
3.3.5	Children's Challenging Behaviour.	42
3.4	Environmental Issues and Inadequate Accommodation.	43
3.5	Conclusion	44
	References	44
4	Assessment and Intervention	45
4.1	The Need for Standardized Risk and Need Assessment Instruments in Intake and Intervention in Protective Care.	45
4.2	Assessment of Need at Intake to Temporary Family Care.	48
4.2.1	Overall Environment: Time 1	48
4.2.2	Overall Parental Capabilities: Time 1	49
4.2.3	Overall Family Interactions: Time 1	49
4.2.4	Overall Family Safety: Time 1	51
4.2.5	Overall Child Wellbeing: Time 1	51
4.2.6	Overall Caregiver/Child Ambivalence: Time 1	53
4.2.7	Overall Readiness for Reunification: Time 1	53
4.3	Assessment of Need and Change Post-Intervention	54
4.3.1	Overall Environment: Time 2	54
4.3.2	Overall Parental Capabilities: Time 2	54
4.3.3	Family Interactions: Time 2	56
4.3.4	Family Safety: Time 2	56
4.3.5	Overall Child Wellbeing: Time 2	57
4.3.6	Overall Caregiver/Child Ambivalence: Time 2	58
4.3.7	Overall Readiness for Reunification: Time 2	59
4.4	Problem to Strength Shifts by Overall Domain	60
4.4.1	Overall Environment	60
4.4.2	Overall Parental Capabilities	61
4.4.3	Overall Family Interactions	61
4.4.4	Overall Family Safety	63
4.4.5	Overall Child Wellbeing.	63

4.4.6	Overall Caregiver/Child Ambivalence	64
4.4.7	Overall Readiness for Reunification	65
	References	66
5	Case Plans and Care Arrangements	67
5.1	Case Planning for Family Reunification	67
5.2	Case Goals	68
5.3	Care Arrangements	68
5.4	Impact of Children's Behaviour on Care Arrangements	71
5.5	Placement Breakdown	72
5.6	Contact and Visitation Arrangements	73
5.7	Caseworkers' Reflections on Contact	74
5.8	Conclusion	77
	References	77
6	Care Patterns and Outcomes of Reunification	79
6.1	Introduction	79
6.2	Worker's Estimates of Tenure in Care	80
6.3	Time in Care	80
6.4	Number of Placements	82
6.5	Discussions About Placement	82
6.6	Analysis of Reunification Patterns and Outcomes	83
6.7	Results	84
	References	86
7	Decisions About Reunification and Interventions to Support Children and Families	87
7.1	Exploring Decision Making Criteria in Reunification	87
7.2	Assessing for Reunification	89
7.3	Child and Family Support Services at Time of Reunification	91
7.4	Services/Agencies Utilized by Birth Families	91
7.5	Practical Support	92
7.6	Emotional Support	93
7.7	Interventions and Supports Offered to Parent/s to Improve Parenting Skills	93
	References	94
8	The Carer's Contributions and Experience	97
8.1	The Value of the Carer's Perspective	97
8.2	Carer Profile	98
8.3	Employment Status and Income	100
8.4	Carer Experience	100
8.5	Reasons for Care	101
8.6	Time in Care	101
8.7	Child in Care	102

8.8	Perceived Benefit of Care Arrangements for the Child and Parents	103
8.9	Children's Health	105
8.10	Education	105
8.11	Access and Contact Visits	106
8.12	Carer's Participation in and Contribution to Case Planning	109
8.13	Carer's Contribution and Participation in Care Planning.	110
8.14	Carer's Views on Reunification	110
8.15	Reunification to Kin	111
8.16	The Speed of the Reunification Process.	112
8.17	Working with Birth Families	113
8.17.1	Carer Perception of Birth Parents	113
8.17.2	The Carer-Worker Relationship	118
8.17.3	Carer Satisfaction.	119
8.17.4	Training and Support	120
8.18	Conclusion	121
	References	121
9	Parental Perspectives	123
9.1	Parents' Reflections on Family Difficulties and Entry to Care	123
9.2	Reactions to Separation	125
9.3	Impact of Case Plans and Legal Processes on Parents.	126
9.4	Parent and Carer Relationships	127
9.5	Parental Views on Contact	129
9.6	Parent and Caseworker Relationships	130
9.7	Parents Feelings at the Time of Reunification	132
9.8	Future Challenges.	133
	References	134
10	Informing Policy and Practice in Reunification	137
10.1	Towards Better Understanding the Pre and Post Intervention Characteristics of Children and Their Families	137
10.2	Pre-Intervention Characteristics.	138
10.3	Post-Intervention Characteristics	142
10.4	Charting the Pathways as Experienced by Children in Care	144
10.5	Child and Family Characteristics Associated with Reunification and Other Pathways for Children.	145
10.5.1	Reunification	145
10.5.2	Children in Particular Circumstances.	146
10.6	Influence of Case Decision Making Elements and Service Variables	147
10.6.1	Reunification Outcomes.	147
10.7	Implications for Policy and Practice	150
	References	152

Accomplishing Permanency: Reunification Pathways and Outcomes for Foster Children

Fernandez, E.

2013, XIV, 154 p. 24 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-94-007-5091-3