The Story

John was a classmate of Timmy and Martin. He was a very friendly and cheerful child. He played in the school's football team and he loved to take long bike rides with his family.

That day John arrived at school jumping with happiness. He went to Timmy and Martin and said, "Today is my birthday! Would you like to come to my party? I will be waiting for you at 4.00, there will be lots of children, music and a super birthday cake!"

Timmy could not believe his ears, "A birthday party!" he exclaimed. Martin and Timmy were so happy!

Timmy had never been to a birthday party, but he was sure he would have a nice time with his friend Martin.

But shortly before the party, Martin began to feel unwell. He had a sore throat and he started sneezing... He had a fever! He had to go to bed and he could not attend the party.

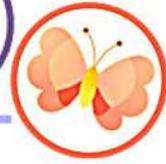

Timmy did not know what to do, but he was very curious about the birthday party and finally he decided to go on his own.

As soon as he arrived at John's house, Timmy saw many children, some of them older than him. They were chasing each other and the music was very loud. Timmy felt uncomfortable and he realized that he did not know what he was expected to do there or with whom he could play.

He felt frozen in front of the other kids and he felt really uncomfortable, he wanted to quit immediately!

Thinking

Understanding the story

- Who is John?
- Why is John happy when he goes to school?
- What are Martin and Timmy going to do at John's party?
- What is Timmy going to do when he realizes that Martin cannot come with him?

Reflecting on social and emotional aspect of the story

- Which emotions do you think does Timmy feel when he arrives at John's party?
- Have you ever felt like Timmy before? Describe what happened to you then, and how you managed to cope with it.
