

Contents

Part I Introduction

- 1 The Status of Professional Caregiving in America ..... 3
Shirley S. Travis and Ronda C. Talley

Part II Discipline-specific Professional Caregiving

- 2 The State of Family Caregiving: A Nursing Perspective ..... 13
Katherine Morton Robinson
- 3 Professional Gerontology and Caregiving ..... 31
Miae Chun, Lewina O. Lee and Bob G. Knight
- 4 Social Work, Direct Care Workers, and Family Care Provider
Challenges: Crisis in Care ..... 51
Nancy R. Hooyman
- 5 Psychological Aspects of Caregiving ..... 69
Laura M. Arnstein and Ronald T. Brown
- 6 Occupational Therapy Perspectives of Caregiving ..... 83
Janet L. Valluzzi
- 7 Education: A Model of Schools as Caregiving Communities ..... 111
K. Leigh Baldwin

Part III Disciplinary Contributions to Caregiving

- 8 Health Communication and Caregiving Research, Policy, and Practice ..... 131
Lisa Sparks

9 An Anthropology of Caregiving .....	177
Frances K. Barg, Shimrit Keddem, Wendy Shiekman Cohen and Rebecca Henderson
10 Caregiving in Late Life: A Life Span Human Development Perspective .....	195
Karen A. Roberto and Shannon E. Jarrott
11 Contributions of Public Health to Caregiving .....	209
Ronda C. Talley, John E. Crews, Donald Lollar, Diane Elmore, Martha R. Crowther and Janet Valluzzi
12 Public Policy and Caregiving .....	239
Nora Super
Part IV Conclusions
13 Professional Caregiving: Working Together to Provide Quality, Comprehensive, Coordinated Care—A Call to Action .....	255
Ronda C. Talley and Shirley S. Travis
Index .....	261

Multidisciplinary Coordinated Caregiving
Research • Practice • Policy

Talley, R.C.; Travis, S.S. (Eds.)

2014, XXIV, 266 p. 8 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4614-8972-6