

Contents

1 African Americans: History and Experience as the “Other” 1

 The Atlantic Slave Trade and the Creation of the “Other” 1

 In Defense: Religion and Rebellion 3

 Post-Emancipation Oppression 4

 The Tuskegee Syphilis Study and Government-Constructed Black Sexual Deviance 6

 Struggle for Civil Rights 8

 Assessing the Psychological Damage 10

 Summary 13

2 Revelation and Liberation 15

 Revealed Word and African American Theology 15

 Liberation Theology and the Struggle Against Oppression 16

 Black Culture: Reflections of Liberation, Revelation, and Power 19

 Summary 23

3 Same-Sex Relations in Scripture and the African American Church 25

 Genesis 1:26–29 25

 The Context of the Passage 26

 Understanding the Passage. 27

 Conclusions 30

 Genesis 19:1–5 30

 The Context 31

 Understanding the Passage. 32

 Conclusion 33

 Leviticus 18:22 and 20:13 34

 The Context of the Proscription 34

 Interpreting the Passage 35

 Conclusion 36

 Romans 1:18–27 37

 Understanding Paul and His Context 38

 Understanding Paul’s Words 39

 Conclusion 42

Corinthians 6:9–11 and 1 Timothy 1:8–11	43
Conclusion	44
Summary	45
4 Moving Forward with Individuals.	47
Introduction	47
Formulating Identity	48
Stage Models of Identity Development	50
Additional Theories of Sexual Identity Development	55
Identity, Attraction, and Behavior	57
Identity and Attraction	57
Identity and Behavior	58
Implications for Clinical Practice	58
Understanding Where the Client Is at	59
Helping Your Client Move Forward: Identifying an Ethical Approach	59
Summary	63
5 Working with Families and Communities	65
Distinguishing Between Misdirected Love and Child Abuse	67
Texts of Terror Versus Texts of Empowerment	71
The Book of Ruth	72
Samuel 18–20 and 2 Samuel 1:26	72
Matthew 8:5–13 and Luke 7:1–10	74
Acts 8:26–40	75
Working with Clergy and Faith Communities	75
Summary	78
Conclusion	79
Notes	81
References	87
Index	105

Understanding Theology and Homosexuality in African American Communities

Loue, S.

2014, XIV, 107 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-1-4614-9001-2