

Contents

1	Introduction.....	1
2	The Behavioural Dimension of Cancer and Sickness	11
	Behaviour of Sick Animals	11
	Disease and the Neuro-Immune-Endocrine System	14
	Immune System, Behaviour and Cancer Development	15
	Cytokines, Depression and Cancer	18
	Hormones, Stress and the Link with Cancer.....	20
	Psychological Stress, Reactive Oxygen Species and Cancer Development	25
	Psychological Stress, Telomere Length and Cancer	27
	Apoptosis and Cancer Development.....	28
	Epigenetic Mechanisms: Psychological Stress, DNA Methylation and Cancer	29
	Additional Mechanisms Linking Stress and Cancer Development	30
	Behaviour and Cancer Prevention/Suppression	34
	Cancer and Human Behaviour	36
	Disease and Pain	46
	Cancer-Related Fatigue.....	53
	Sleep Disorders and Cancer	56
	Circadian Rhythms and Cancer	62
	Cancer and Nausea.....	66
	Cancer and the Senses.....	68
	Vision	69
	Hearing.....	70
	Touch.....	70
	Temperature Sensitivity	71
	Olfaction	71
	Taste	74
	Summary of Main Conclusions	77
	Topics for Discussion.....	79

3 Psychology and Cancer	81
Cancer and Psychological Distress	81
Demoralisation.....	90
Long-Term Effects of Distress on Quality of Life.....	92
Cancer and Depression	95
Emotional Aspects of Cancer.....	103
Hope and Optimism	109
Emotional Modulation	112
Cancer and Cognition	117
Effects of Cancer Therapies on Cognition.....	120
Memory Faculties and Cancer	129
Personality Characteristics and Cancer.....	132
Personality as a Causal Contributor to Cancer Development.....	137
Effects of Cancer Development on Personality	143
Effects of Personality on Cancer Progression.....	145
Long-Term Personality Effects on Quality of Life	147
Dreams of Cancer Patients.....	150
Sexual Behaviour of Cancer Patients.....	156
Sexual Behaviour of Cancer Patients:
The Longer-Term Perspective.....	163
Sex and Gender Effects in the Psychology of Cancer Patients.....	170
Sex, Gender Role and Cancer Distress	178
Cancer Survivors: Effects of Sex, Gender Role
and Long-Term Quality of Life.....	181
Ageing Effects in the Psychology of Cancer Patients.....	183
Behaviour and Infectious Causes of Cancer	190
Psychological Morbidity and Cancer.....	193
Cancer and Schizophrenia.....	203
Brain Tumours and Psychology	207
Summary of Main Conclusions	219
Topics for Discussion.....	222
4 The Existential Dimension of Cancer	225
Existential Concerns of Cancer Patients	228
Cancer Suffering	232
Cancer and Religion/Spirituality.....	239
Intercessory Prayers	245
Religiosity, Spirituality and Coping.....	248
Spontaneous Regression of Cancer.....	255
Terminal Cancer Patients	261
Cancer and Desire for Hastened Death.....	265
Dying with Dignity	270
Summary of Main Conclusions	276
Topics for Discussion.....	277

5 The Social Dimension of Cancer	279
Coping with Cancer	280
Coping and Emotions.....	283
Coping and Cognition.....	284
Repressive Forms of Coping.....	290
Cancer and Social Support.....	295
The Partners	300
The Family	308
Friends and Other Relevant Members of Society	316
Caregiver Burden	318
Social Support Intervention Programmes	321
Online Cancer Support Groups.....	325
Cancer and Social Stigma	330
Summary of Main Conclusions	347
Topics for Discussion.....	349
6 Language and the Cross-Cultural Dimension of Cancer	351
Linguistic Aspects of Cancer	352
Medical Translations.....	357
Medical Interpreting.....	361
Language Dysfunctions and Cancer	366
Choice of Lexicon.....	368
Discourse Analysis.....	372
Narratives	383
Cancer Narratives and Patient's Identity.....	389
Cancer Narratives in Social Context and Therapy	393
Personal Blogs and Diaries	395
Cross-Cultural Issues in Psychological and Linguistic Oncology	407
Family Function and Dynamics	410
Discrimination.....	412
Sex Roles	413
Language and Communication	416
Disclosure of Information	417
Pain and Emotional Control.....	423
Attitudes Towards Illness and Health Practices	426
Perception of Cancer Cause	431
Immigration Effects	438
Religion/Spirituality.....	439
Autonomy/Dependency	440
Delirium	441
Death and Bereavement	443
Cancer as Metaphor Across Cultures.....	449
Summary of Main Conclusions	459
Topics for Discussion.....	460

7	Communication Between Doctor and Cancer Patient.....	461
	Communication Between Doctor and Patient.....	461
	Formal Consensus Statements	467
	Patient-Centred Approach to Medical Communication.....	469
	The Empathic Approach in Patient-Centred Communication	472
	Effects of Communication on Health and Delivering of Bad News	475
	Doctor/Patient Communication in Oncological Context	477
	Empathic Consultations and Cancer Patients' Coping Styles.....	485
	Communication and Quality of Life	489
	Delivering Bad News	493
	Follow-Up Visits	504
	Communication When a Third Person Is Also Present	508
	Medical Education and Training in Communication.....	516
	Educating Doctors for Patient-Centred Communication	518
	Some Approaches to Teaching Medical Communication.....	519
	How Effective Are Communication Skills Teaching Programmes?	522
	Training for Self-Efficacy	525
	Training for Emotional Intelligence
	in Doctor–Patient Communication	526
	Training for Bad News Delivery and Transition to Palliative Care.....	529
	Education for Cross-Cultural Communication	531
	Teaching Communication Skills to Patients	535
	International Medical Graduates.....	537
	Specific Communication Training Programmes	539
	Barriers and Challenges	544
	Summary of Main Conclusions	548
	Topics for Discussion.....	549
8	Complementary Psychological Therapies.....	551
	Psychological Interventions on Cancer Patients	552
	Tackling the Side Effects of Treatment.....	554
	Psychological Interventions to Improve Survival	555
	Interventions to Improve Psychological Coping and Adjustment	556
	Complementary Cancer Therapies.....	557
	Complementary Therapies and Immunity	561
	Psychological Effects of Exercise.....	576
	Psychological Effects of Diet.....	578
	Chronotherapy.....	579
	Sun Exposure: A Complex Relationship with Cancer	582
	Acupuncture.....	585
	Relaxation Therapies	586
	Massage.....	589
	Aromatherapy	590
	Meditation	592
	Yoga	594

Cognitive Therapies	600
Art Therapies	604
Music.....	605
Dance	610
Visual Arts	613
Creative Writing.....	620
Humour and Laughter Therapy.....	626
Magical Thinking	634
Hypnosis	638
Animal-Assisted Therapy	642
Individual Psychotherapy.....	648
Group Therapies.....	653
Summary of Main Conclusions	661
Topics for Discussion.....	662
 Glossary	 663
References	681
 Index	 775

Behavioural Oncology

Psychological, Communicative, and Social Dimensions

Cordella, M.; Poiani, A.

2014, XVII, 802 p. 72 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4614-9604-5