

Contents

Part I Introduction

1 Introduction	3
References	6

Part II Governance as Evolution

2 Theoretical Sources of EGT	9
2.1 Biological Theories of Evolution	9
2.2 Social Systems Theory	10
2.3 Post-structuralism	11
2.4 Institutional and Development Economics	13
References	14
3 Foundational Concepts	17
3.1 Functional Differentiation	17
3.2 Organizational Differentiation	20
3.3 Formal/Informal and Dead Institutions	21
References	24

Part III Building Blocks for Evolutionary Governance Theory

4 Evolutionary Paths	29
4.1 Governance Paths	29
4.2 Dependencies	30
4.3 Path Creation	32
References	33

5	Seeing, Making and Distributing Things	35
5.1	Object Formation and Subject Formation	35
5.2	Boundaries	38
5.3	Policy, Knowledge/Power, and Implementation	41
	References	43
6	The Power of Stories	45
6.1	Narratives	45
6.2	Metaphors and Open Concepts	48
6.3	Ideologies	52
	References	53
7	Governance Paths and Reality Effects	55
7.1	Performance and Performativity	55
7.2	Performing Failure and Success	58
	References	61

Part IV Applying EGT

8	Governance and Its Categories	65
8.1	Governance Models	65
8.2	Governance Dimensions	72
8.3	Spatial Scales: Individuals, Organizations, Communities	75
	References	77
9	Overview of the EGT Model	79
9.1	Configurations of Actors, Institutions and Power/Knowledge	79
9.2	Dependencies and Path Creation	81
9.3	Governance Paths, Objects and Subjects	81
9.4	Methodological Implications	83
	References	85
10	Policy Formulation and EGT: Making Governance Work	87
10.1	Formal Institutions and Citizen Participation	88
10.2	Social Engineering	89
10.3	Sustainability and Innovation	90
10.4	The Autonomy and Rationality of Markets	92
10.5	Development	93
	References	94

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-00983-4>

Evolutionary Governance Theory

An Introduction

Van Assche, K.; Beunen, R.; Duineveld, M.

2014, X, 95 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-00983-4