

Contents

Part I On Samir Amin

1	Biographical Notes	3
1.1	Higher Education in Paris	3
1.2	Political Orientation	4
1.3	Professional Activities	5
1.4	The Egyptian Experience	5
1.5	The Parisian Experience	6
1.6	The Malian Experience	6
1.7	Teaching and Research	8
1.8	The IDEP Experience	8
1.9	The ENDA, CODESRIA and FTM Experience	9
1.10	Intellectual Production	9
1.11	Capitalism as a Global System	10
1.12	Capitalism and Imperialism	11
1.13	Polarization and Ways Toward Emancipation for the South	12
1.14	The Bandoeng Project	13
2	Bibliography only of Main Books	15
2.1	Main Books in French	15
2.2	Main Books in English	17
2.3	Main Books in Spanish	18

Part II Texts by Samir Amin on the Theory of Historical Capitalism

3	Theoretical Model of Capital Accumulation and Development in the Contemporary World	23
3.1	The Determining Articulation in an Autocentric System	24
3.2	The Main Articulation in the Peripheral Model	26
4	Unity and Change in the Ideology of Political Economy	31

5	Is Social History Marked by Overdetermination or Underdetermination?	43
6	Multipolarity in the Twentieth Century.	49
6.1	The Drama of the Great Revolutions	50
6.2	The Weight of Imperialism, the Permanent Stage of the Global Expansion of Capitalism	50
6.3	Defence of the Post-revolutionary States Central to the Vanguard's Strategic Choices.	51
6.4	Nation-Building and/or Socialist Construction in the Radical Countries of the Periphery	52
6.5	Opening Debate on the Long Transition to World Socialism.	54

Part III The Contemporary Challenge

7	The Center Will Not Hold: The Rise and Decline of Liberalism.	59
7.1	The Centrality of the French Revolution	59
7.2	The Emergence of the Liberal Center	60
7.3	The France/England Parallel	62
7.4	The Formation of the Social Sciences	63
7.5	The Nineteenth Century, Apogee of Historical Capitalism	64
7.6	The Impossible Stabilization of the Liberal Center in the Peripheries of the Capitalist/Imperialist World System	66
7.7	There is no Possible Clear-cut Answer to this Question	68
	References.	69
8	The Countries of the South Must Take Their Own Independent Initiatives	71
9	The Democratic Fraud and the Universalist Alternative	75
9.1	The Democratic Fraud Challenges us to Invent Tomorrow's Democracy	75
9.2	The Democratic Farce's Stage Scenery	76
9.3	Theories and Practices of the Vanguards and of the Enlightened Despotisms.	78
9.4	The Ideology of Cultural Nostalgia, Enemy of Democracy	81
9.5	The Universalist Alternative: Full and Authentic Democratization and the Socialist Perspective	84
9.6	Three Conclusions	87
	References.	89

10 Land Reforms: Desirable Land Tenure Reforms in Africa and Asia	91
10.1 Introduction	91
10.2 Land Access and Tenure Status	92
10.2.1 Land Tenure Based on the Private Ownership of the Land	92
10.2.2 Land Tenure Systems not Based on the Private Ownership of the Land	94
10.3 Forms of Organisation of Agricultural Production and Land Tenure	98
10.4 Alternative Land Tenure	101
10.4.1 Agricultural and Food Production, and Land: No Ordinary 'Merchandise'	102
10.4.2 Northern Double Standards Towards People of the South	103
11 Transnational Capitalism	107
11.1 Is Transnational Capitalism in the Process of Emerging?	107
11.2 National Capitalisms and Collective Imperialism	109
11.3 One Europe or Many Europes: Under Construction or Deconstruction?	113
11.4 Europe is Still Conjugated in the Plural	113
11.5 Faced with this Challenge, Are the Peoples' Responses Effective? Under Which Conditions?	114
12 Africa 50 Years of Independence	119
12.1 Interview by RFI: Afrique: 50 Ans D'indépendance Africa's Failing and The Global System	119
13 Aid for Development	125
13.1 Aid for What Development?	125
13.2 From the Paris Declaration (2005) to the Accra Declaration (2008)	126
13.2.1 Legitimacy	126
13.2.2 What Constitutes Aid?	126
13.2.3 Poverty, Civil Society, Good Governance: The Weak Rhetoric of Dominant Aid Discourse	128
13.3 Geo-Economic, Geo-Political and Geo-Strategic Aid	129
13.4 The Contours of an Aid Alternative	131
13.4.1 An Abrupt Rupture from the Current Aid Architecture is, Alas, Not Desirable	131
13.4.2 Alternative Aid is Inseparable from the Conceptualisation of Alternative Development	132

13.4.3	We Should, Taking as a Point of Departure the Criteria in the Preceding Section, Do an Inventory of the Aid that Countries Receive	135
13.4.4	North–South Cooperation is not Exclusive	136
	References	137
14	Emergence and Lumpen Development	139
14.1	What Is ‘Emerging’?	139
14.2	Emergence and Lumpen Development	141
15	Synthesis and Reflections.	143
	The Third World Forum (TWF) - Le Forum deu Tiers Monde (FTM). . .	153
	About the Author.	159
	About the Book	161

Samir Amin

Pioneer of the Rise of the South

Amin, S.

2014, XVIII, 161 p. 12 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-01115-8