

Contents

|          |                                                                                                         |           |
|----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1 | La Llorona Calling: The Epidemic of Latina Adolescent Depressive Symptoms and Suicidality | 1  |
|          | Latina Adolescents in the United States                                                                 | 1         |
|          | Definitions of Suicide, Suicide-Related Behaviors, and Depressive Symptoms                              | 4         |
|          | Warning Signs of Depression and Suicide                                                                 | 4         |
|          | Adolescent Suicide in the United States                                                                 | 5         |
|          | Interpreting Ethnic Health Disparities: Avoid the Gloss                                                 | 5         |
|          | No Easy Answers: Transcending Cultural Deficit Models                                                   | 6         |
|          | Culture-Bound Definitions of Suicide-Related Illness                                                    | 8         |
|          | In Summary                                                                                              | 8         |
| 2 | What Drove Her to Do It? Theories of Depression and Suicide                                      | 11 |
|          | Depression and Suicide                                                                                  | 11        |
|          | Cognitive Behavioral Theory                                                                             | 13        |
|          | Acculturative Stress Model                                                                              | 13        |
|          | Interpersonal Theory of Suicide                                                                         | 15        |
|          | Zayas's Ecodevelopmental Model of Latina Suicide                                                        | 17        |
|          | In Summary                                                                                              | 19        |
| 3 | Latina Adolescent Resilience Rooted Within Cultural Strengths                                    | 21 |
|          | Multiracial Feminist Framework                                                                          | 21        |
|          | Importance of Understanding Protective Factors Among Latina Adolescents                                 | 24        |
|          | Individual Variables                                                                                    | 30        |
|          | In Summary                                                                                              | 32        |
| 4 | Risk Factors for Latina Adolescents' Mental Health and Well-Being                                | 35 |
|          | Macrosystem-Level Risks and Influences                                                                  | 36        |
|          | Stereotypes                                                                                             | 38        |
|          | Stereotypes and Body Image for Young Women                                                              | 39        |
|          | Stress of Discrimination and Prejudice                                                                  | 40        |
|          | Family Stress and Conflicts                                                                             | 41        |

|                                                                     |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Peers and Bullying .....                                            | 43 |
| Teen Dating Violence .....                                          | 44 |
| Alcohol and Substance Use: Individual and Peer Microsystems .....   | 45 |
| In Summary .....                                                    | 46 |
| 5 Reclaiming Malintzin: Healing and Preventing Latina |    |
| Depression and Suicide .....                                 | 47 |
| Summary of Theory and Current Research Findings .....               | 48 |
| How We Can Use and Apply Research Findings to End the Epidemic ...  | 49 |
| Recommendations for Future Research .....                           | 50 |
| Mental Health Care Access and Treatment .....                       | 51 |
| Recommendations for Mental Health Professionals .....               | 52 |
| Assessment and Evaluation .....                                     | 52 |
| Prevention and Treatment .....                                      | 53 |
| Cultural Adaptations of Treatments .....                            | 54 |
| Recommendations for School Professionals .....                      | 55 |
| Conclusion and Recommendations .....                                | 56 |
| References .....                                             | 59 |
| Index .....                                                  | 75 |

Preventing Adolescent Depression and Suicide Among Latinas

Resilience Research and Theory

Romero, A.J.; Edwards, L.M.; Bauman, S.; Ritter, M.K.

2014, VI, 75 p. 12 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-01380-0