This book is based on my doctoral dissertation, which I defended at the University of Helsinki in June 2008. I wish to thank the following people for their support and advice during this long process:

Prof. Simo Knuuttila, my supervisor, first suggested the topic of mental illness to me in 2001, and has with unfailing patience and optimism seen me through the lows and highs of scholarly life, the perils of which Rufus of Ephesus so rightfully acknowledges.

Many helpful comments have been supplied by Prof. Maarit Kaimio, my other supervisor; Prof. Juha Sihvola and Prof. Mikko Yrjönsuuri, the examiners of my Licentiate's thesis; Prof. Taneli Kukkonen, who conducted the preliminary examination of my dissertation; and Prof. Richard Bett, the other examiner of my dissertation, who also acted as my opponent.

During the years after taking my doctorate, I have worked as a postdoctoral researcher in the Academy of Finland Centre of Excellence "Philosophical Psychology, Morality and Politics", which has enabled me to concentrate on turning my thesis into this book.
