

Contents

1	Boundaries and Interfaces	1
1.1	Introduction.....	1
1.2	Church and State in the Pre-reformation Era: A Brief Overview	2
1.2.1	Monarch and Pope	2
1.2.2	Rome in England: Catholicism and Papal Power	2
1.2.3	The Ecclesia Anglicana.....	3
1.2.4	Christianity and Charity.....	4
1.2.5	Church, State and Charity	4
1.2.6	Mortmain, Frankalmoigne and the Pious Use.....	5
1.2.7	The Boundary Between Ecclesiastical and Secular Jurisdictions.....	6
1.2.8	Confining the Jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts	7
1.3	Family, Religious Belief and the State.....	8
1.3.1	Marriage.....	8
1.3.2	The Marital Bond.....	9
1.3.3	Family: The Marital Unit	9
1.3.4	Legal Obligations of Spouses	10
1.3.5	Parenting	10
1.3.6	Breaking the Marital Bond.....	11
1.3.7	Nullity	11
1.3.8	Divorce.....	11
1.3.9	Family: The Non-marital Unit	12
1.3.10	Parents.....	12
1.3.11	Children.....	12
1.3.12	Penalising Non-marital Relations	12
1.3.13	Church, State and the Enforcement of Christian Morality.....	13
1.3.14	Sexual Relations.....	13
1.4	New Forms of Collective Action Mediating Between Citizen and State	14
1.4.1	Collectivism and Politics	14

1.4.2	Collectivism	14
1.4.3	Mutual Benefit and Other Organisational Structures.....	15
1.4.4	Politics.....	16
1.4.5	Unified by religion	17
1.4.6	Modern Democracies, Pluralism and Faith Based Organisations.....	17
1.4.7	Professions and Other Special Interest Groups.....	18
1.4.8	Legal Rights, Trade Union Activity etc.	18
1.4.9	Legal Rights	19
1.4.10	Social Justice.....	19
1.4.11	Trade Unions.....	19
1.5	From the Sacred to the Secular	20
1.5.1	The Interface Between Science and Religion	20
1.5.2	Medical Intervention in Matters of Life and Death	21
1.5.3	Other Scientific Advances	21
1.5.4	Secularism and Religion	22
1.5.5	The State and Religion.....	22
1.5.6	Those with and Those Without Religious Beliefs.....	23
1.5.7	Commerce and Religion: Trading by Religious Charities ..	24
1.5.8	Funding from Commercial Sources	25
1.5.9	The Interface Between Religion and Anti-terrorism.....	25
1.5.10	Domestic Religious Charities	26
1.5.11	Operating Overseas.....	26
1.6	Conclusion	27
2	Religion, Charity and the Law.....	29
2.1	Introduction.....	29
2.2	Concepts, Principles and Definitions	30
2.2.1	Religion.....	30
2.2.2	Beliefs and Rationality.....	30
2.2.3	Differences in Approach and Their Consequences	31
2.2.4	Christianity.....	32
2.2.5	Confraternities.....	32
2.2.6	Christian Charitable Organisations in England.....	33
2.2.7	Canon Law and Christian Morality.....	33
2.2.8	Charity.....	34
2.2.9	The Pious Use	34
2.2.10	Altruism	35
2.2.11	Discretion	35
2.3	Charity Law and Religion	36
2.3.1	Charities and Charity Law	36
2.3.2	Charitable Purposes	37
2.3.3	Common Law Requirements	38
2.3.4	Charity Law and the Definition of Religion	39
2.3.5	Belief in a Supreme Being	40

2.3.6	Worship of a Supreme Being	40
2.3.7	Canon Law, Doctrines, Tenets etc	41
2.3.8	Religions in General	42
2.3.9	Differences Between Religions.....	42
2.3.10	Discrimination Between Religions	43
2.3.11	The Advancement of Religion	43
2.3.12	Advancement	44
2.3.13	Traditional Types of 'Advancement'	45
2.4	Religion and Public Benefit	47
2.4.1	The Public Benefit.....	47
2.4.2	Public	48
2.4.3	Benefit.....	49
2.4.4	Presumption of Public Benefit	50
2.4.5	Religion and Social Capital	51
2.4.6	Social Capital and Charity	51
2.4.7	Religion, Charity and Social Capital	52
2.5	Conclusion	53
3	Establishing the Church of England	55
3.1	Introduction.....	55
3.2	The Church of England: Origins and Historical Background.....	56
3.2.1	The Protestant Reformation	56
3.2.2	The Influences from Continental Europe.....	56
3.2.3	The Doctrinal Changes	57
3.2.4	Emergence of Anglicanism	58
3.2.5	The Statutory Foundations	58
3.2.6	Ecclesiastical Foundations	59
3.2.7	The Role of the Ecclesiastical Courts	62
3.2.8	Jurisdiction	63
3.3	Consolidation, Suppression and Charity.....	63
3.3.1	Consolidating Protestantism	63
3.3.2	The Crown Courts	64
3.3.3	The Ecclesiastical Courts.....	64
3.3.4	Assertion of Church/State Protestant Partnership	65
3.3.5	Suppression of Other Religions	67
3.3.6	Persecution of Catholics and Dissenters	67
3.3.7	Charity Law and the Church/State Hegemony.....	69
3.4	Toleration at Home and Expansion Overseas	71
3.4.1	Some Toleration	71
3.4.2	Act of Settlement	71
3.4.3	Limitations	72
3.4.4	Post-waterloo	73
3.4.5	The Church of England: Loosening Ties with the Overseas Anglican Church.....	74
3.4.6	The Colonies	74

3.4.7	The Status of the Church of England in the Colonies.....	75
3.4.8	The Church of England: Becoming More 'Established' at Home	78
3.4.9	Status.....	78
3.4.10	The Ecclesiastical Courts, Christian Values and Anglicanism.....	79
3.5	Conclusion	80
4	The Established Church: Governance, Organisational Structure and Theology	81
4.1	Introduction.....	81
4.2	The Established Church	82
4.2.1	Locus Standi of the Church.....	82
4.2.2	The Broad View	82
4.2.3	Case Law	83
4.2.4	The Established Church and Charity Law	85
4.2.5	Religious Discrimination	85
4.2.6	Towards Equality	86
4.2.7	Indices of 'Establishment'.....	87
4.2.8	Constitutional.....	87
4.2.9	Political	88
4.2.10	Religious	88
4.2.11	Legal.....	89
4.2.12	Social.....	89
4.3	Governance and Management of the Church of England	89
4.3.1	Governing Legislation.....	90
4.3.2	Process	90
4.3.3	Legislative History	91
4.3.4	Governors.....	91
4.3.5	The Monarch.....	91
4.3.6	The Archbishop of Canterbury.....	92
4.3.7	Organisational Structure	92
4.3.8	Primacy	92
4.3.9	Province	93
4.3.10	Diocese.....	93
4.3.11	Archdeaconry	93
4.3.12	Deanery	93
4.3.13	Parish.....	94
4.3.14	Representative Bodies.....	94
4.3.15	The Archbishops' Council.....	94
4.3.16	Church Commissioners.....	95
4.3.17	The Church of England Pensions Board.....	95
4.3.18	Management Bodies.....	96
4.3.19	Convocations.....	96
4.3.20	The General Synod	96

4.3.21	The House of Bishops	97
4.3.22	The House of Clergy	97
4.3.23	The House of Laity	98
4.4	Ecclesiastical Law and Jurisdiction of the Courts	98
4.4.1	Ecclesiastical Law	98
4.4.2	Law Reform in the Mid-nineteenth Century	99
4.4.3	The Court System: Non-doctrinal Cases	100
4.4.4	The Archdeaconry Court	101
4.4.5	The Bishop's Court	101
4.4.6	The Archbishop's Court	101
4.4.7	Appeals	102
4.4.8	The Court System: Doctrinal Cases	102
4.4.9	The Court of Ecclesiastical Causes Reserved	102
4.4.10	Appeals	103
4.4.11	The Role and Jurisdiction of the Privy Council	103
4.4.12	Jurisdiction	103
4.5	Doctrine, Worship and Liturgy	104
4.5.1	The Middle Way	104
4.5.2	Religious Beliefs	104
4.5.3	Anglican Identity	105
4.5.4	Low Church	106
4.5.5	Broad Church	106
4.5.6	High Church	106
4.6	Conclusion	107
5	Anglicanism at Home and Abroad	109
5.1	Introduction	109
5.2	Anglicanism at Home	110
5.2.1	The Church of England: A Contemporary Statistical Profile	110
5.2.2	Church Membership and Participation	110
5.2.3	Maintenance of Church Infrastructure	111
5.2.4	The Church of England: Changes in the Clergy	112
5.2.5	Declining Numbers	112
5.2.6	The Ordination of Women	112
5.2.7	Gay Clergy	112
5.2.8	The Clergy and the Civil Partnership Act 2004	113
5.2.9	Joining the Ordinariate	114
5.2.10	The Church of England: Public Benefit Service Provision	115
5.2.11	Education	115
5.3	The Anglican Communion	116
5.3.1	Definition	117
5.3.2	Interpretation	117
5.3.3	Brief Historical Background	118

5.3.4	Imperial Beginnings.....	118
5.3.5	Non-established Anglicanism	119
5.3.6	Forging Formal Links	120
5.3.7	Organisational Structures: The ‘Instruments of Communion’	121
5.3.8	The Lambeth Conference.....	122
5.3.9	The Anglican Consultative Council	123
5.3.10	The Primates’ Meeting	124
5.3.11	The Anglican Covenant.....	124
5.4	The Anglican Communion: Challenging Milestones.....	125
5.4.1	Contention Regarding the Ordination of Women	125
5.4.2	Response of the Church of England.....	126
5.4.3	Contention Regarding the Ordination of Gay Clergy	126
5.4.4	The U.S. and Canada	126
5.4.5	The Southern Hemisphere.....	127
5.4.6	Response of the Church of England.....	127
5.4.7	Contention Regarding the Ordination of Women as Bishops.....	128
5.4.8	The U.S.	128
5.4.9	Elsewhere in the Communion	129
5.4.10	Response of the Church of England.....	129
5.4.11	Contention Regarding Same Sex Marriages	130
5.4.12	The U.S. and Canada	131
5.4.13	Elsewhere in the Communion	132
5.4.14	Response of the Church of England.....	132
5.5	The Covenant Crisis and Threat of Schism.....	133
5.5.1	Launching the Covenant	134
5.5.2	Obstacles	134
5.5.3	Ongoing Communion Dissension	134
5.5.4	The Covenant	135
5.5.5	Communion Solidarity.....	136
5.5.6	Conflict Resolution	136
5.5.7	Current Status of the Covenant	137
5.5.8	Towards Schism	137
5.5.9	Schism.....	137
5.6	Conclusion	138
6	The Impact of Charity Law Reform	139
6.1	Introduction.....	139
6.2	The Drivers and Outcomes of Charity Law Reform	141
6.2.1	Reform Drivers	141
6.2.2	Regulatory Inadequacy	141
6.2.3	Charitable Purpose Inadequacy.....	143
6.2.4	Human Rights Compliancy	144
6.2.5	Political Incentives	145

6.2.6	Reform Outcomes	145
6.2.7	Changes to the Regulatory Framework.....	146
6.2.8	Changes to the List of Charitable Purposes	147
6.2.9	Human Rights Compliant	148
6.2.10	Changes in Relation to the Public Benefit Test.....	149
6.3	The Consequences of Reform for Religion and Religious Organisations	151
6.3.1	Religion and Religious Beliefs	151
6.3.2	God/s	151
6.3.3	Moral or Ethical Belief Systems	152
6.3.4	Doctrine, Tenets, Worship etc.	154
6.3.5	Subjective Understanding	155
6.3.6	The Advancement of Religion	156
6.3.7	Religion and Post-reform Public Benefit	157
6.3.8	Public Benefit and the Activities Test	158
6.3.9	The Church of England and Post-reform Public Benefit	159
6.3.10	Public Benefit and Private Piety.....	161
6.3.11	Religion and Other Charitable Purposes.....	162
6.3.12	The Pemsel Plus Charitable Purposes	162
6.4	Reform Implications for the Church of England	162
6.4.1	Religion, Belief Systems and the Church of England.....	163
6.4.2	Traditional Religious Beliefs	163
6.4.3	The Public Benefit Test and the Church of England.....	164
6.4.4	The Institutional Presence of the Established Church	164
6.4.5	Moral Leadership	165
6.4.6	Social Utility	165
6.4.7	Public Benefit Test, Trading and the Church of England.....	165
6.4.8	Trading and the 'Established' Factor	166
6.4.9	Direct Service Provision	166
6.4.10	Fees	167
6.5	Conclusion	167
7	The Impact of Human Rights	169
7.1	Introduction.....	169
7.2	Human Rights: The Legal Framework.....	170
7.2.1	Human Rights	170
7.2.2	The United Nations Declaration of Human Rights.....	171
7.2.3	The European Convention and Discrimination.....	171
7.2.4	Convention Principles of General Application	172
7.2.5	The Equality Act 2010: Exemption, Protected Grounds and Public Bodies	172
7.2.6	The Statutory Exemptions.....	173
7.2.7	The 'Protected Grounds'	174
7.2.8	A Public Body and the Agency Relationship.....	174

7.2.9	The Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006.....	175
7.2.10	Proportionality	175
7.3	Freedom of Religion and Discrimination	175
7.3.1	Article 9 and Interference with the Manifestation of Religious Belief	176
7.3.2	Interference	177
7.3.3	The Manifestation of Religious Belief.....	178
7.3.4	Proselytism as a Manifestation of Religious Belief.....	179
7.3.5	Article 14 and Discrimination.....	180
7.3.6	Principles.....	181
7.3.7	Religious Discrimination in Practice	182
7.3.8	Unequal but Not Discriminatory.....	182
7.3.9	Unequal but Not Discriminatory: Contractual Obligations	183
7.3.10	Unequal and Discriminatory: Restricting Employment Opportunities.....	185
7.3.11	Unequal and Discriminatory: Restricting Access to Services.....	187
7.3.12	Unequal but 'Positive Action'	189
7.4	Human Rights, and the Church of England: Some Pressing Issues	189
7.4.1	Facilitating Pluralism	190
7.4.2	Convention Case Law, the Church and Pluralism.....	190
7.4.3	Unequal and Discriminatory: Service Restrictions.....	191
7.4.4	Discriminatory Policy	191
7.4.5	Fees	192
7.4.6	Gay Marriage	193
7.4.7	Unequal and Discriminatory: Restricting Employment Opportunities.....	194
7.4.8	Gender and Sexual Inequality	195
7.4.9	Agency/Principal Relationship with Government	196
7.4.10	The Established Church	196
7.4.11	Church as Government Contracted Service Provider	197
7.5	Conclusion	198
8	Moral Jeopardy: The Challenges for the Church and for Religion Internationally	199
8.1	Introduction.....	199
8.2	Canon Law, the Scriptures and Sexuality	200
8.2.1	The Canons	200
8.2.2	The Canons of 1603	201
8.2.3	The Scriptures	201
8.2.4	Scriptures and Sexuality	202
8.2.5	Marriage.....	202
8.2.6	Homosexuality	203

8.2.7	The Church and Its Present Stand on Sexuality Issues.....	203
8.2.8	Lambeth 1.10 etc.	204
8.3	'Moral Imperatives' and the Politics of Secularism.....	205
8.3.1	The 'Moral Imperatives'.....	205
8.4	Family Oriented Moral Imperatives: The Christian Legacy	206
8.4.1	Family Oriented Moral Imperatives: The Contemporary Agenda.....	207
8.4.2	Polarisation.....	207
8.4.3	Religious Pluralism	208
8.4.4	The Politics of Secularism.....	209
8.4.5	The Secularists.....	209
8.4.6	The Religious.....	210
8.5	Conflict of Laws: Canon Law, Charity Law and Equality Law	211
8.5.1	Canon Law.....	212
8.5.2	Areas of Conflict.....	212
8.5.3	Charity Law	213
8.5.4	Areas of Conflict.....	213
8.5.5	Human Rights and Equality Law.....	214
8.5.6	Areas of Conflict.....	215
8.6	Religion and Other Belief Systems: Some Contemporary Judicial Guidance.....	217
8.6.1	Religious Belief	217
8.6.2	Beliefs Not Dependent Upon Doctrines	218
8.6.3	Criteria Applied to Confirm Status of a Religion or Belief System	219
8.6.4	Subjective Experience	219
8.6.5	Discrimination and the Law	222
8.6.6	Cultural Context	223
8.6.7	New Zealand.....	224
8.6.8	Australia	225
8.7	Conclusion	227
	Conclusion	229
	Index.....	233

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-04318-0>

The Church of England - Charity Law and Human Rights

O'Halloran, K.

2014, XVIII, 241 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-04318-0