

Contents

1 The Technical Part of the Painter's Manuals Compiled and Used by Early Iconographers. Historic Notes	1
References	7
2 Materials From Natural Sources and Those Prepared in the Iconographer's Studio or in the Peasant Household	9
References	13
3 Pigments.....	15
3.1 Cinnabar	15
3.2 About a Green Pigment, Acetic Fermentation, and Quality Control ...	25
3.3 White Pigments Prepared by Iconographers and Used in Mural Painting	29
3.4 Black Pigments	34
References	39
4 Gilding.....	41
4.1 Adhesive Mixtures Used in Gilding.....	43
4.2 Ambole and Poliment.....	46
4.3 Murdent, Mixtion and Gulifarba.....	49
4.4 Ilinocopia.....	52
4.5 Gilding on Paper	53
4.6 Gilding on Mother-of-Pearl.....	54
References	54
5 Adhesives Prepared from Vegetal and Animal Sources Used by Iconographers.....	57
References	60
6 Varnishes.....	61
References	65

7	Inks Prepared and Used by Iconographers	67
7.1	Black Inks.....	68
7.2	Other Inks.....	73
7.3	“Disappearing” Inks	75
	References	76
8	About Grinding	79
8.1	One-step vs. Several-Step Grinding.....	80
8.2	Riddling, Sieving, and Straining	82
8.3	The Media	83
	References	85
9	Iconographers and the Fresco Technique	87
	References	96
10	Icons on Glass: Materials and Technique	99
	References	110
11	The Apprenticeship of an Iconographer	111
11.1	The Apprenticeship.....	112
11.2	The Consecration Ceremony	120
11.3	The Journeymen	124
11.4	Maintaining the Grace	127
	References	130
	Biographical Note.....	131
	Index.....	133

The Materials and Craft of Early Iconographers

Leonida, M.D.

2014, XVI, 136 p. 19 illus., 16 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-04827-7