

Contents

Introduction	1
Tony Payan
Part I The Politics Behind the Gridlock
The Congressional Dynamics of Immigration Reform	23
Daniel J. Tichenor
Latino Issue Priorities and Political Behavior Across US Contexts	49
Ali A. Valenzuela and Sarah K. Stein
Immigration Policy Versus Immigration Politics: Latinos and the Reform Debate	79
David L. Leal
Part II Local Responses to Federal Paralysis
Immigration Policy and Partisan Politics in the State Legislatures: 2010–2012	99
Mark P. Jones and Benjamin Chou
The Immigration Debate in Texas	121
Tony Payan
US Immigration Policy in the Twenty-First Century, with Special Reference to Education: Examining Crosscurrents of Nativist and Accommodationist Policymaking	139
Michael A. Olivas

Part III The Fallout and Costs of Political Gridlock

The Costs and Benefits of Immigration Enforcement	163
Raúl Hinojosa–Ojeda

Immigrants in the US Labor Market	189
Pia M. Orrenius and Madeline Zavodny

Workers, Families, and Immigration Policies	209
Leisy J. Abrego and Shannon Gleeson

US Children with Parents in Deportation Proceedings	229
Randy Capps, Ajay Chaudry, Juan Manuel Pedroza, Rosa Maria Castañeda, Robert Santos and Molly M. Scott

Part IV Resolving the Immigration Crisis

Security and Immigration Policy: An Analytical Framework for Reform	253
Robbie J. Totten

Ctrl+Alt+Del: Rebooting Immigration Policies Through Socio- technical Change	271
Rodrigo Nieto–Gómez

US Immigration, Demography, and Citizenship in a Digital Age	293
Jason Ackleson

The Path to US Immigration Reform	313
Susan F. Martin

Conclusion	339
Erika de la Garza

Undecided Nation

Political Gridlock and the Immigration Crisis

Payan, T.; de la Garza, E. (Eds.)

2014, XX, 342 p. 58 illus., 27 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-06479-6