

Contents

1	The Basic Idea	1
2	Legal Orders	9
2.1	Introduction	9
2.2	Some Morphological and Ontological Points of View	10
2.3	Some Praxeological and Teleological Points of View	15
3	Prolegomena to the Clarification of Law-State Thinking	23
3.1	Introduction	23
3.2	Some Methodological and Conceptual Remarks	25
3.2.1	Clarification	25
3.2.2	Value Relations. Conflicts	30
3.2.3	Juridical Technique	35
3.2.4	Justification and the Contrast-Method	36
3.2.5	Legal Protection and the Law-State Paradox	36
3.2.6	The Four Basic Law-State Values. Legality. Nomocracy	43
3.3	Law-State Thinking, Democracy, Judicial Review and the Idea of Restrictions on Power	46
3.4	Are the Basic Law-State Values Justifiable?	52
3.5	The Law-State	56
4	Legality and Legal Subordination	59
4.1	What is Legality?	59
4.2	Compliance with the Law	63
4.3	The Technique of Legality	75
4.3.1	Introduction	75
4.3.2	Technical Devices in the Hands of the Law-Applier	76
4.3.3	Technical Devices in the Hands of the Legislator	81
4.4	The Limits of Legalism	89
4.5	Legal Subordination. Constitutionalism	93

5	Legal Equality	97
5.1	Clarifying the Concept “Legal Equality”	97
5.1.1	Introduction	97
5.1.2	The Basic Components of Equality	98
5.1.3	Legal Equality With Respect to Subjects	98
5.1.4	Legal Equality With Respect to Objects	100
5.1.5	Discrimination	100
5.1.6	The Symbiotic Nature of Legal Equality	101
5.1.7	The Proper Direction of Legal Equality	102
5.1.8	Direct and Indirect Legal Discrimination	103
5.1.9	Discrimination in Disguise	104
5.1.10	Equality Before the Law. Equality in the Law. Equality Through the Law	105
5.1.11	Procedural Legal Equality	106
5.2	Undue Discrimination and a Life of Human Dignity	107
6	Legal Certainty	113
6.1	Clarifying the Concept “Legal Certainty”	113
6.2	Factors Obstructing Legal Certainty (LC-Defects)	116
6.3	Justifying Legal Certainty	124
6.4	Value Relations	126
7	Legal Accessibility	129
7.1	Introduction	129
7.2	Clarifying the Concept “Legal Accessibility”	130
7.3	Justifying Legal Accessibility	133
7.4	Law-State Standards of Legal Accessibility	138
7.5	Value Relations	140
8	Legal Security	143
8.1	Clarifying the Concept “Legal Security”	143
8.2	Justifying Legal Security	151
8.3	Value Relations	159
8.4	Principles. Legal Subordination	165
9	The Organisation of the Law-State	173
9.1	Introduction	173
9.2	Legal Organisations	174
9.3	How to Organise a Law-State	178
	Index	187

From Rechtsstaat to Universal Law-State
An Essay in Philosophical Jurisprudence

Frändberg, Å.

2014, XI, 190 p. 2 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-06783-4