

Contents

1	Introductory Overview of the Hizmet Movement	1
	The Hizmet Movement: Its Beginnings and Development	3
	Growth Beyond Houses of Hospitality: Educational Initiatives	6
	Broadening the Scope of Public Discourse: Media Initiatives	8
	Marshalling Philanthropic Resources: Professional Network Development	9
	Facilitating Respectful Interacting and Understanding: Dialogue Centers	10
	Promoting Human Well-Being: Charitable Initiatives	11
	References	12
2	The Importance of the Virtues in General and Hospitality in Particular	13
	Understanding the Virtues	15
	References	20
3	From Tolerance to Hospitality	21
	Tolerance: The Definitive Virtue of Western Modernity	21
	Beyond Tolerance: The Virtue of Hospitality	24
	References	37
4	The Virtue of Hospitality: Gülen's Understanding	39
	The Influence of Sufism on Gülen's Conception of the Virtues in General and Hospitality in Particular	39
	Islamic Grounding of the Virtue of Hospitality	44
	References	50
5	Hospitality and Related Virtues: Gülen's Understanding	51
	Other Virtues Emphasized in the Hizmet Movement	52
	Humility	53
	Courtesy	56
	Loving-Kindness	58
	Patience	60

Mildness, Mercy and Restorative Justice	63
Hope	70
References	73
6 Education: Development of the Intellectual and Moral Virtues . . .	75
Education as Virtue Focused.	75
Education as Promoting Wisdom, the Intellectual
Virtue of the Mind	78
Education as Promoting the Moral Virtues of Character.	86
Educational Outreach Through Media Channels	89
References	90
7 Service to Humanity: The Virtues of Compassion and Charity . . .	91
The Virtue of Compassion	91
Compassion in Religious Traditions.	93
Compassion and Charity in the Hizmet Movement	98
Kimse Yok Mu	102
References	105
8 Love as the Ultimate Virtue	107
Love in Relation to Other Virtues	107
Three Current Challenges	113
The Hizmet Movement as a Non-political Initiative.	113
The Hizmet Movement as a Modernist, Moderate Islamic
Movement	116
The Hizmet Movement as a Communitarian Service Movement . . .	117
References	123
Works Cited and Referenced	125

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-07832-8>

Cross-cultural Dialogue on the Virtues

The Contribution of Fethullah Gülen

Conway, T.D.

2014, XV, 128 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-07832-8