

Table of Contents

List of Acronyms and Abbreviations	15
Preface.....	17
1 Introduction – Closing the Unfinished Business	19
1.1 Mediation and Negotiation – Bridge or Drift?	20
1.2 Intractability of Identity Conflicts – Dealing with Slippery Agreements in the Philippines	21
1.3 Identity Violence in the Philippines – Between Misrecognition and Nation-building	23
1.4 Stumbling Blocks and Strategic Facilitation – Assessing the Negotiation Process.....	26
1.5 Research Objectives and Contributions	28
2 Catching the Slippery Fish – A Theorization of the Concept of Identity and Identity Conflicts	31
2.1 Conflict Defined.....	33
2.2 A Conflict Analysis – the Systematic Approach	34
2.2.1 Conflict and Scarcity – Reduced Human Capital	37
2.2.2 Conflict and Colonization - the Distorted State-building	40
2.2.3 Conflict and the Civilizational Fault-lines	42
2.2.4 Conflict and Misrecognition – Hegemonial Identity Politics and Social Relations.....	42
2.3 The Construction of the Bangsamoro Identity – The Collective Memory of Misrecognition.....	49
2.4 Conclusion – Initiating a Theoretical Debate in the Philippines.....	55

3 The Nation as a Subject of Scientific Studies	63
3.1 The Nation and Postcolonial Studies	63
3.2 The Four Streams of the Study of the Nation	64
3.2.1 Historicity and Subjectivity/Normativity	66
3.2.2 Historicity and Objectivity/Methodism	68
3.2.3 Non-historicity and Subjectivity/Normativity	70
3.2.4 Non-Historicity and Objectivity/Methodism	71
3.3 Conclusion – The Nation Defined	73
4 The Hegemonic Nation – How Minorities are Invented	77
4.1 The Hegemon vs. the Leader – Identifying the Fundament of Bureaucracy	78
4.2 The Hegemonic Nation – Profiling the Philippine Nation... 80
4.2.1 The Tagalog as Freedom Fighters – The Role of Independence Entrepreneurs	81
4.2.2 Language and Constitution – Consolidating the Hegemonic Bureaucracy	83
4.2.3 System Stability through the Absence of Challengers.. 85
4.2.4 People Power or Tagalog Power? – The Role of the Elites from the Capital	87
4.2.5 The Hegemon following the colonialist divide and rule strategy – the role of Political Warlords in Maintaining Hegemony	88
4.3 Interim Conclusion – Reframing Hegemony to Leadership 89
5 The Nation and the Legitimacy of Violence –The Need for the Concept of “Non-Competitive Nation-Building	93
5.1 Nation-hood and State-hood – the Functionality of Violence	94

5.2 Defining Violence – What Lies Behind by this Elusive Concept?.....	96
5.2.1 Direct Violence	96
5.2.2 Structural Violence	97
5.2.3 Symbolic Violence	97
5.3 The Bureaucracy of Violence – Acquiring and Maintaining Legitimacy	99
5.4 Failure to Monopolize Violence as State Failure? - Franchising Violence to Political Warlords	101
5.5 Democracy Nurturing Violence – Between Power and Hierarchy.....	102
5.6 The Need for a Paradigm Shift – The Concept of a “Non-Competitive Nation-Building”	104
5.7 Nationalistic Paradigms (P) – Discovering Patterns of Misrecognition	106
5.8 A Concept of “Non-Competitive” Nation-building.....	107
5.8.1 The Nation-State and Institutional Pluralism.....	107
5.8.2 Stability vs. Resilience	108
5.8.3 Resilience and Leadership	109
5.8.4 The Nation and the Identity of Solidarity	110
5.8.5 Nation-building and History – Reframing Narratives.	111
5.9 Interim Conclusion – Legitimizing Violence through Nation-Building.....	113

6 Mediation as Intervention of Choice – A Critical Analysis of Mediation in Identity Conflicts..... 117

6.1 Studying Mediation.....	117
6.2 Conceptualizing Mediation.....	120
6.3 How Mediation Works.....	124
6.3.1 The Different Stages of Mediation – Bringing Structure to the Process	125

6.3.2 Conditions for the Use of Mediation in Identity Conflicts	129
6.4 Rationale and Motives of Mediation in Identity Conflicts – Altruism or Pure Politics?	132
6.5 Dilemmas of Mediation Standards - Quality Assessment as Guarantee for Success?	135
6.5.1 Neutrality and Impartiality of Mediators	135
6.5.2 Autonomy of Conflicting Parties	136
6.5.3 Confidentiality of the Process	137
6.5.4 Voluntariness	137
6.5.5 The Power Balance between Conflicting Parties	138
6.6 Critical Views on Mediating Identity Conflicts – Gaps through the Bridge	139
6.6.1 Mediation and (In)justice	139
6.6.2 Mediation and the Pro-Rights Approach	140
6.6.3 Mediation, Power Imbalances and Sustainability	141
6.6.4 Mediation and Accountability	142
6.7 Interim Conclusion – Mediation as Intervention of Choice in Identity Conflicts	143

7 Managing Intractable Identity Conflicts – A Concert of Measures in the Southern Philippines..... 149

7.1 Causes of Intractability – Mapping out the Bangsamoro Conflict.....	149
7.2 Mediation and other Intervention Efforts in the Philippines	154
7.2.1 First-Track Mediation in the Philippines – Dealing with “Biased” Mediation	158
7.2.2 Mediation by Regional Organizations – The Organization of Islamic Conference (OIC) in the Philippines	165
7.2.2.1 The Organization of Islamic Conference (OIC)	167

7.2.3 Non-Governmental Organizations as Mediators – The Imperative Partnership	172
7.3 Interim Conclusion - Designing the Intervention Process	179
8 Relating Agreements to the Peace Process – The Science and Art of Decision-Making	187
8.1 Uncertainty and Negotiated Outcomes	188
8.2 Reaching an Agreement – Options and Dilemmas	190
8.3 Negotiation Outcomes - Agreement, No Agreement and Collapsed Agreement.....	191
8.3.1 Agreement.....	192
8.3.2 No Agreement.....	192
8.3.3 Collapsed Agreement.....	193
8.4 Macro-Perspectives in a Long-Term Process – the Mindanao Case.....	194
8.5 The Implementation of Agreements – Dilemmas in the Operationalization.....	202
8.6 Monitoring Agreements	203
8.7 Interim Conclusion - Managing Process Complexity	205
9 Stumbling Blocks - Reasons for Collapse of Agreements....	209
9.1 Actor-related Stumbling Blocks – Dealing with Humans	210
9.1.1 Diversity of Actors, Professional Cultures and Communication Skills.....	210
9.1.2 Lack of Information and Lack of Institutional Memory	210
9.1.3 Spoilers and Negotiators for “Side-Effects”	211
9.2 Issue-related Stumbling Blocks – Issue Complexity	212
9.2.1 Problem of Ranges – Framing Problems and Issues... ..	212
9.2.2 Multi-causality and Diffusion - Horizontal and Vertical Linkages of Issues.....	213

9.2.3 Low Politics vs. High Politics – Problematization of Rewards and Costs	214
9.2.4 The Zero-Sum Trap – Violence and Security	216
9.3 Structure-related Stumbling Blocks	216
9.3.1 Power Structures and Asymmetries	217
9.3.2 Lack of Information and Immeasurability of Stakes ..	218
9.3.3 Constituency Accountability	219
9.3.4 Multi-Party Setting	220
9.4 Process-related Stumbling Blocks	220
9.4.1 Time Frame Paradox – Between Short-term and Long-Term Approaches	220
9.4.2 Sectoral Arrangements	222
9.5 Outcome-related Stumbling Blocks	223
9.5.1 Varying Expectations	223
9.5.2 Post-settlement Dilemma	224
9.6 Interim Conclusion – When Means Become Ends	225

10 Strategic Facilitation of the Mindanao Peace Process – Dealing with Stumbling Blocks.....229

10.1 Actor-related Prescriptions	230
10.1.1 Problem-Solving Mode – Separating Persons (Relationships) from Problems (Issues)	231
10.1.2 Management of Professional Cultures and Group Cohesion in Negotiation.....	231
10.1.3 Capacity Building	232
10.1.4 Dealing with Spoilers – Identifying Structural Weaknesses	234
10.1.5 Dealing with “Side-Effects” and Hardliners through Engagement.....	235
10.2 Issue-related Prescriptions	237
10.2.1 Knowledge Management – Truth Commissions and Early Warning Systems.....	237

10.2.2 Sequential Agreements and Amendment Procedures – Flexibility of Agreements	239
10.3 Structure-related Prescriptions	240
10.3.1 Integrative Bargaining.....	240
10.3.2 Dealing with Constituency Gaps – The Role of Public Spheres	242
10.4 Process-related Prescription – Process Management.....	243
10.5 Outcome-related Prescriptions.....	244
10.5.1 Expectation Management.....	246
10.5.2 Dealing with Insufficient Outcomes – Evaluation and Selection of Alternatives	247
10.6 Interim Conclusion – Bridging the Gaps	249
11 Conclusion – Lessons for Theory and for Action to Resolve Identity Conflicts.....	253
11.1 Lessons for Theory and for Action – Dealing with Complexity.....	254
11.2 Outlook for Further Research	261

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-658-05214-0>

Nation-building and Identity Conflicts
Facilitating the Mediation Process in Southern Philippines

Hernández, A.

2014, XVIII, 244 p. 4 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-658-05214-0