

Table of Contents

Preface	VII
Conditions and Delimitations	XIII
1 Introduction.....	1
2 Tourism and the Built Environment.....	7
2.1 The Functions of Architecture in Tourism.....	10
2.2 From Tourism Architecture to Architectural Tourism	18
2.3 Between Historical Monuments and Contemporary Architecture ..	24
2.4 Form Follows Function or Function Follows Form.....	40
2.5 Between Art and Architecture	46
3 Architectural Tourism in the Spatial and Temporal Urban Context.....	57
3.1 About the Interaction of Urban Atmosphere and Urban Tourism...	58
3.2 Architectural Tourism in the Context of Urban Transformation...	65
3.3 Contemporary Architecture as an Integrated Part of Self-Contained Resort City Destinations and Theme Parks	72
3.4 Contemporary Architecture as a Temporary Event	84
3.5 Corporate Architecture and Tourism.....	90
4 Contemporary Architecture and the Destination Image.....	99
4.1 About the Interdependencies between Photography and Architecture and their Mutual Impacts on the Image of a Tourism Destination.....	101
4.2 The Role of Signs, Symbols, Icons and Ducks.....	114

4.3 The Tourist's Desire to Go and See Something New – While at the Same Time Seeking Something Familiar	121
4.4 The “Virtual” and the “Real” Symbol and Why One Is Not Just Like Another	127
5 Architectural Tourism and the Spectaculture	133
5.1 In Search of a New Balance	136
5.2 Between Globalization and Glocalization	143
5.3 Architects Between a Culture of Copy and a Quest for Authenticity	148
5.4 From Non-Place Architecture to Destination Symbol to Archibrand	157
6 Conclusions	165
References	171
Index	195

Architectural Tourism

Building for Urban Travel Destinations

Specht, J.

2014, XIV, 199 p. 115 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-658-06023-7