

Contents

1 Framing Workplace Learning	1
Olwen McNamara, Marion Jones and Jean Murray
2 Developing a Multi-Layered System of Distributed Expertise: What does Cultural Historical Theory Bring to Understandings of Workplace Learning in School-University Partnerships?	29
Ann Childs, Anne Edwards and Jane McNicholl
3 Developing Knowledge for Qualified Professionals	47
Michael Eraut
4 Work-based, Accredited Professional Education: Insights from Medicine	73
Tim Dornan and Anne-Mette Mørcke
5 ‘In This Together’: Developing University-Workplace Partnerships in Initial Professional Training for Practitioner Educational Psychologists	87
Kevin Woods
6 Disentangling What it Means to be a Teacher in the Twenty-First Century: Policy and Practice in Teachers’ Continuing Professional Learning	103
Bob Burstow and Meg Maguire
7 Pulling Learning Through: Building the Profession’s Skills in Making Use of Workplace Coaching Opportunities	121
Philippa Cordingley and Natalia Buckler

8 Empowering Teachers as Learners: Continuing Professional Learning Programmes as Sites for Critical Development in Pedagogical Practice	137
Yvonne Barnes and Yvette Solomon
9 Lesson Study in a Performative Culture	151
Julian Williams, Julie Ryan and Siân Morgan
10 The Policy Context of Teachers' Workplace Learning: The Case for Research-based Professionalism in Teacher Education in England	169
Anne Campbell
11 Workplace Learning in Pre-service Teacher Education: An English Case Study	183
Olwen McNamara, Jean Murray and Marion Jones
12 Work-based Learning in Teacher Education: A Scottish Perspective	207
James Conroy, Graham Donaldson and Ian Menter
13 'Learningplace' Practices and Pre-service Teacher Education in Ireland: Knowledge Generation, Partnerships and Pedagogy	221
Paul F. Conway, Rosaleen Murphy and Vanessa Rutherford
14 Teacher Learning in the Workplace in Pre-service Teacher Education in Portugal: Potential and Limits from a Pre-service Teacher Perspective	243
Maria Assunção Flores
15 Learning to Teach in Norway: A Shared Responsibility	261
Kari Smith and Marit Ulvik
16 Teaching as a Master's Level Profession in Finland: Theoretical Reflections and Practical Solutions	279
Pertti Kansanen
17 Improving Workplace Learning in Teacher Education	293
Jean Murray, Olwen McNamara and Marion Jones

Workplace Learning in Teacher Education
International Practice and Policy

McNamara, O.; Murray, J.; Jones, M. (Eds.)

2014, XIV, 315 p. 14 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-94-007-7825-2