

Contents

1 Objects in Mind .....	1
Mattia Gallotti and John Michael

Part I Perspectives on Social Ontology

2 Are There Social Objects? .....	17
John R. Searle
3 Deflating Socially Constructed Objects: What Thoughts Do to the World.....	27
Ruth Garrett Millikan
4 How Many Kinds of Glue Hold the Social World Together? .....	41
Brian Epstein
5 On the Nature of Social Kinds.....	57
Francesco Guala
6 Normativity of the Background: A Contextualist Account of Social Facts .....	69
Enrico Terrone and Daniela Tagliafico
7 Social Ontology and the Objection from Reification .....	87
Edouard Machery

Part II Perspectives on Social Cognition

8 Constraints on Joint Action .....	103
Cédric Paternotte
9 How Objects Become Social in the Brain: Five Questions for a Neuroscience of Social Reality.....	125
Cristina Becchio and Cesare Bertone

10	Materializing Mind: The Role of Objects in Cognition and Culture.....	135
	Kristian Tylén and John J. McGraw
11	Perceiving Affordances and Social Cognition.....	149
	Anika Fiebich
12	Social Cognition as Causal Inference: Implications for Common Knowledge and Autism .....	167
	Jakob Hohwy and Colin Palmer

Perspectives on Social Ontology and Social Cognition

Gallotti, M.; Michael, J. (Eds.)

2014, VIII, 189 p. 4 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-94-017-9146-5