

Contents

1	An Entanglement of Sorts: Archaeology, Ethics, Praxis, Multiculturalism	1
	Cristóbal Gnecco
Part I Is There a Global Archaeological Ethics? Canonical Conditions for Discursive Legitimacy and Local Responses
2	An Indigenous Anthropologist’s Perspective on Archaeological Ethics	21
	Joe Watkins
3	Both Sides of the Ditch: The Ethics of Narrating the Past in the Present	27
	Caroline Phillips and Anne Ross
4	Against Global Archaeological Ethics: Critical Views from South America	41
	Rafael Pedro Curtoni
5	Archaeology and Ethics: The Case of Central-Eastern Europe	49
	Arkadiusz Marciniak
6	Europe: Beyond the Canon	61
	Víctor M. Fernández
7	New Worlds: Ethics in Contemporary North American Archaeological Practice	69
	Neal Ferris and John R. Welch

Part II Archaeological Ethics in the Global Arena: Emergences, Transformations, Accommodations

8 Archaeology and Capitalist Development: Lines of Complicity.....	95
Alejandro Haber
9 Archaeology and Capitalism: Successful Relationship or Economic and Ethical Alienation?	115
Nicolas Zorzin
10 Trading Archaeology Is Not Just a Matter of Antiquities: Archaeological Practice as a Commodity	141
Jaime Almansa Sánchez
11 The Differing Forms of Public Archaeology: Where We Have Been, Where We Are Now, and Thoughts for the Future	159
Carol McDavid and Terry P. Brock
12 Ethics in the Publishing of Archaeology	185
Mitchell Allen
13 Patrimonial Ethics and the Field of Heritage Production.....	201
Michael A. Di Giovine
14 Archaeologies of Intellectual Heritage?	229
Lesley Green
15 Just Methods, No Madness: Historical Archaeology on the Piikani First Nation	245
Eldon Yellowhorn
Index.....	257

Ethics and Archaeological Praxis

Gnecco, C.; Lippert, D. (Eds.)

2015, XVII, 258 p. 10 illus., 6 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4939-1645-0