

Contents

|   |    |
|---|----|
| 1 Metals and the Production and Reproduction of Society  | 1  |
| Introduction  | 1  |
| Data Sources  | 3  |
| Towards an Integrated View of Global Metallurgy   | 10 |
| Organization of Work  | 12 |
| References  | 13 |
| 2 Origins and Development of Africa's Preindustrial Mining and Metallurgy                      | 17 |
| Introduction  | 17 |
| Origins of Metallurgy in Egypt and Adjacent Areas   | 19 |
| Metal from Somewhere: On the Origins of Metallurgy in West, Central and East Africa                   | 20 |
| Why are Iron and Copper Earlier than Gold and Bronze in Sub-Saharan Africa? Some Provocative Thoughts | 28 |
| Conclusion  | 30 |
| References  | 31 |
| 3 Mother Earth Provides: Mining and Crossing the Boundary Between Nature and Culture           | 35 |
| Introduction  | 35 |
| History of Mining: A Global Perspective   | 38 |
| The First Step: Ore Exploration and Prospecting in Precolonial Africa                                 | 39 |
| Methods of Crossing the Nature–Culture Boundary:  |    |
| Mining of Ores in Preindustrial Africa  | 40 |
| Surface Collection  | 40 |
| Alluvial Mining   | 41 |
| Open Mining   | 44 |
| Underground Mining  | 45 |
| Preindustrial Hoisting and Beneficiation  | 51 |
| Mining Equipment and Other Paraphernalia  | 53 |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| The Anthropology of Mining: A Global Outlook .....                      | 53         |
| Conclusion .....  | 56         |
| References .....  | 57         |
| 4 Domesticating Nature .....                                     | 61  |
| Introduction: Transforming Ore into Metal .....                         | 61         |
| Raw Materials .....   | 63         |
| Brief Overviews: Metal Smelting in Preindustrial Africa—                |            |
| Egypt, Nubia, North Africa and the Horn of Africa .....                 | 67         |
| West Africa .....   | 74         |
| Central Africa .....  | 78         |
| East Africa .....   | 82         |
| Southern Africa .....   | 84         |
| Anthropology of Smelting .....  | 87         |
| Conclusion .....  | 92         |
| References .....  | 93         |
| 5 Socializing Metals.....  | 99  |
| Introduction: Fabricating Metal into Cultural Products .....            | 99         |
| Metal Fabrication in Egypt and Nubia .....                              | 101        |
| Forging, Smithing and Casting in Sub-Saharan Africa: West and           |            |
| Central Africa .....  | 105        |
| East and Southern Africa with Occasional References                     |            |
| to Sudan and Ethiopia .....   | 111        |
| Metals in Society: The Anthropology of Smithing and Metal Objects ..... | 119        |
| Conclusion .....  | 121        |
| References .....  | 122        |
| 6 The Social Role of Metals .....                                | 125 |
| Introduction .....  | 125        |
| General Impact of Metals in Society .....                               | 126        |
| Metals, Sociopolitical Complexity and Urbanism .....                    | 130        |
| Metallurgy, Culture Contact (Interaction), Proto-Globalization          |            |
| and Technology Transfer .....   | 138        |
| Conclusion .....  | 145        |
| References .....  | 146        |
| 7 Bridging Conceptual Boundaries, A Global Perspective.....      | 151 |
| Introduction .....  | 151        |
| African Metallurgy and the Bridging of Conceptual Boundaries            |            |
| Between Technology, Society and Culture .....                           | 153        |
| Bridging Analytical Boundaries: From Sources of Ethnographies           |            |
| to Domains of Integrated Studies .....                                  | 154        |
| Local Responses to Technology Transfer and Knowledge Dispersal .....    | 157        |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| African Metals: Land and Sea Links and Protoforms of Globalization ....                               | 158 |
| Changing Contexts of Knowledge Production and the Future ofAfrican Preindustrial Metallurgy ..... | 159 |
| Conclusion .....  | 161 |
| References .....  | 162 |
| Index .....  | 165 |

Metals in Past Societies

A Global Perspective on Indigenous African Metallurgy

Chirikure, S.

2015, XXI, 166 p. 65 illus., 44 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-11640-2