

Contents

Dedication	ix
Foreword.....	xi
Acknowledgements	xv
Author’s prologue	xvii
1 Developing the Mercury-Atlas program.....	1
A problem of complacency	1
Boosting “Old Reliable”	2
Unveiling Atlas	5
Powering to orbit.....	9
The Little Joe tests	14
Sam and Miss Sam.....	18
John Glenn named to MA-6.....	22
2 The precursory flight of chimpanzee Enos	27
Ham’s Mercury mission.....	27
Training the chimps	29
A suitable candidate for orbit.....	30
Enos and MA-5	34
A troublesome flight	37
Results pave the way	39
A “go” for orbital flight.....	40
3 Marine on a mission.....	43
The Glenn family	43
First flight.....	46
Joining the Marine Corps.....	50
Patrol duty in China	55
War in the air over Korea	55
Preparation for space.....	58

NASA is born.....	59
Selecting the Mercury astronauts.....	61
How the selection process worked.....	64
Lovelace clinic and Wright-Patterson.....	66
Initial training.....	70
4 Delays and more delays	73
The long wait begins.....	73
Creating an insignia	76
A procession of delays	80
Close, but another delay.....	83
Coping with postponements.....	90
Ready to try again	92
5 “Godspeed, John Glenn”	95
Working as a team.....	95
Mission Control: A most important team	97
Beginning the big day	99
Ready to go	106
Final preparations.....	111
Winding down the countdown	114
6 A drama-filled mission	119
Blazing a trail.....	119
Into orbit.....	124
Flying into “fireflies”	128
Orbit Two and Segment 51	129
“A real fireball”	135
The moment of truth	138
Splashdown!.....	140
7 Safe splashdown	143
Luck of the draw.	143
Action on the USS Noa	145
Astronaut on board.....	149
The President calls	152
A ship celebrates.....	155
Memories of an historic day	159
More memories	160
Aboard the USS Randolph	162
Action on Grand Turk Island.	164
Recalling three days of excitement	170
8 Back home a hero	175
A joyful reunion.....	175
Ceremony at the Cape	177

The press conference.....	180
A speech before Congress.....	188
“Dear Colonel Glenn”	194
9 Epilogue: Beyond the Mercury program.....	197
Piloting, public relations and politics.....	197
Spaceman and Senator	199
Back into orbit.....	204
Nearing launch	206
A lifetime of achievement.....	210
Afterwords	213
Appendix 1 Deployment of the MA-6 recovery force	217
Appendix 2 Sequence of events during the MA-6 flight	219
Appendix 3 In his own words.....	221
Appendix 4 Naming that tune.....	241
Appendix 5 The Mercury pressure suit	249
Appendix 6 Around the World with Friendship 7	257
About the author	269
Index.....	271

Friendship 7

The Epic Orbital Flight of John H. Glenn, Jr.

Burgess, C.

2015, XXI, 275 p. 186 illus., 37 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-15653-8