

Contents

1	Introduction.....	1
	Introduction.....	1
2	Bedouin: Evolving Meanings	5
	Between Ethnicity and Lifestyle.....	5
	Community Variation and Subgroups.....	10
3	Arab Communities of Israel and Their Urbanization	13
	The Impact of Limited Migration on Rural-Urbanization Patterns	16
4	Theoretical Context: Justice, Urbanism, and Indigenous Peoples	21
	Land Claims of Indigenous People	21
	Urbanism, Modernization, Westernization, and Forced Urbanization.....	24
	Justice: Distribution, Recognition, Participation, Compensation	27
5	Negev (in Hebrew) or Naqab (in Arabic) Bedouin.....	31
	The Bedouin of the Negev: A Short History.....	31
	The Context for Israeli Territorial Expansion	34
6	Evolution of Local Authorities: A Historical Overview.....	37
	Role and Duties of Local Authorities	40
	Organizing Local Authorities into a Union.....	42
	A Crisis Situation.....	42
7	Resettlement Planning 1948–Present	47
	Background to the Planning Process for Bedouin Towns and Villages.....	47
	Government Policies and Responses	53
	District Plans.....	62
	The Goldberg Committee.....	63
	Prawer and Begin Implementation Committees (of Goldberg Recommendations).....	66

Investigation Committee to Examine the Municipal and Planning Boundaries of the Bedouin in the Beer Sheva Area.....	67
Alternative Planning from Grassroots Up.....	67
8 Lessons Learned.....	69
Land Claims of Indigenous People	70
Urbanism, Modernization, Westernization, and Forced Urbanization.....	71
Justice: Distribution, Recognition, Participation, Compensation	72
Distributive Issues	73
Recognition	74
Participation	74
Compensation	75
9 Proposals for Flexible Bedouin Resettlement and Collaborative Planning	77
The Proposed Planning Model for Possible Resettlement.....	82
Options Supported by Field Research.....	86
Conclusions.....	89
References	91
Index.....	99

Israel's Invisible Negev Bedouin

Issues of Land and Spatial Planning

Shmueli, D.F.; Khamaisi, R.

2015, XI, 102 p. 15 illus., 12 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-16819-7