

Contents

Part I Introduction and Basic Concepts

1 Back to Basics: Cosmopolitanism?	3
References	6

Part II A Broader Angle

2 A Brief Orientation in the Literature	9
References	12
3 Cosmopolitanism in the Light of Philosophical Tradition.	15
References	23
4 Cosmopolitanism and Networks: Odessa, Trieste, Tbilisi	25
4.1 Trieste	29
4.2 Odessa	33
4.3 Tbilisi	38
4.4 Narratives and Networks and These Three.	41
References	44

Part III The Small Worlds of Cosmopolitanism: Sulina

5 Introduction: Sulina as Center and Margin	49
References	55

6 Narratives of Place and Self	57
6.1 Autobiography, Biography, and Place	57
6.2 Gatekeepers and Promoters of Memory	68
6.3 A History of Marginality	76
6.4 New Borders and Boundaries	81
References	84
7 Identities on the Move	87
7.1 Fluid Identities and Migration	87
7.2 Performance of Multiculturalism and Urban Space	93
7.3 Vanished Groups and Their Narrative Impact	96
7.4 Vanished Places and Their Narrative Impact	98
References	101
8 Narratives, Networks and Policies (Sulina and Beyond)	103
8.1 Changing Landscapes and Reconstruction of Identity	103
8.2 Past, Future and Policy	110
References	113
 Part IV Small and Large
9 Local Cosmopolitanism and Governance	117
9.1 Introduction: Local Cosmopolitanism Revisited	117
9.2 The Real	119
9.3 Trieste and the Others	122
9.4 Towards a Governance Frame	124
9.5 Policies and Steering	127
References	130

Local Cosmopolitanism

Imagining and (Re-)Making Privileged Places

Van Assche, K.; Teampău, P.

2015, VI, 131 p. 12 illus., 7 illus. in color., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-19029-7