Acknowledgments

All praise is due to ALLAH, the most merciful, the most beneficent, for all his bounties and for all his arrangements to put some of his servants in my way to help me in completing this work and in all my life.

I would like to give my sincerest thanks to my supervisors, Prof. Hesham F. A. Hamed and Dr. Magdy A. El-Moursy. They enlightened me with invaluable advice, constructive comments during periodical meetings, and a wide amount of knowledge. They also provide me with continuous support, attention, modesty, friendly attitude, and warm encouragement.

I am indebted to my parents, sisters, and my brother Dr. Kareem for their everlasting love, support, patience, and encouragement. This book would not have been easy to finish without them.

I must also acknowledge the support and encouragement from my husband. Words can never express my thankfulness for his love and support. Without him I could not have proceeded so far.

Special thanks to my children Mayar and Eyad for bringing me so much happiness in my life.
