

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations.....	7
1 Introduction	9
Maria Grazia Martino
2 Nazi Germany and Religion—Some Thoughts on the Legal Framework Set by Religion Policy in a Polycratic Government System.....	55
Dirk Schuster
3 Does Islam belong to Germany? On the Political Situation of Islam in Germany	71
Ufuk Olgun
4 Switzerland: No Religious Peace without Public Arrangements—or, Why the Catholic Church in Switzerland has to adopt Provisions from Swiss Democracy, as Exemplified by the Canton of Zurich	85
Florian Schmid and Indrani Das Schmid
5 Denominational Influence on Religion Policy after the State Church? Evidence from Greece, Italy, and Sweden.....	97
Maria Grazia Martino
6 Dealing with Religious Diversity: The Aims and Realities of Religious Education in Sweden	119
Anders Sjöborg
7 European Turks in between Local and Transnational Islamic Networks: The Hizmet Movement as a Translocal Actor in the Religiosity of Turks in France and Germany	133
Sumeyye Ulu Sametoglu
8 Conclusion.....	155
Maria Grazia Martino
About the Authors	179

The State as an Actor in Religion Policy
Policy Cycle and Governance Perspectives on Institutionalized Religion

Martino, M.G. (Ed.)

2015, VIII, 171 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-658-06944-5