

---

Table of Contents

Foreword .....	9
Ednan Aslan
Introduction .....	13
Marcia Hermansen
Citizenship Education and Islam .....	25
Ednan Aslan
Migration, Feelings of Belonging to a Land, and the Universality of Islam .....	45
Zeki Saritoprak
 Section One Western European Cases
Citizenship Education in Multicultural Societies .....	57
Jørgen S. Nielsen
Citizenship from an Austrian Christian Theological perspective .....	67
Matthias Scharer
The Contribution of Islamic Religious Education to Citizenship Education in Austria .....	77
Zekirija Sejdini

Citizenship Education and Islam
The Austrian Situation .....	87
Nadire Mustafi
To be Muslim and Swiss
Children of Muslim Immigrants from South East Europe
and the Politics of Belonging .....	95
Brigit Allenbach
Learning to Live with Different Worldviews in The Netherlands .....	111
Siebre Miedema
Islamic Education in Spain .....	123
Juan Ferreiro Galguera
Patterns of Integration of Jewish Migrants
from the Former Soviet Union in Germany .....	137
Doron Kiesel
 Section Two The Balkans and the Middle East
Citizenship Education and Muslims in Bulgaria .....	149
Rositsa Atanasova
Religious Education, European Citizenship and Religious Pluralism
Islamic Education – The Case of Romania .....	161
Laurențiu D. Tănase
Civil Education and Religion in Macedonia .....	177
Muhammed Ali
Religion and Citizenship Education
The Case of Turkey .....	187
Mustafa Köylü

A Retrospective and Critical View of Turkish Citizenship Education .....	209
Selahattin Turan

Citizenship Education in Diverse Democracies How Thick or Thin? How Maximal or Minimal? .....	225
Hanan Alexander

Section Three Eastern Europe and Russia

To Raise Good Muslims and Good Citizens The Goals of Religious and Cultural Education for Polish Tatars in the 20th Century .....	241
Agata S. Nalborczyk

The Positions of Muslim scholars in the Volga-Ural Region in the Context of Islamic Ideologies of the 20th and 21st Centuries .....	259
Leyla Almazova

Citizenship Education in Russia Between “Patriotism” and “Spirituality” .....	273
Dmitry Shmonin

Section Four North America

Education for Citizenship in Public and Catholic Schools in the United States .....	283
Eileen Daily

Contributions of Religions for Citizenship Education in Canada A Christian Religious Educator’s Perspective .....	295
HyeRan Kim-Cragg

Appendix   Messages of Felicitation

Message of Felicitation ..... 307
László Andor

Message of Felicitation ..... 311
Ayhan Tekinç

Contributor Biographies ..... 315

Bibliography ..... 323

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-658-08602-2>

Islam and Citizenship Education

Aslan, E.; Hermansen, M. (Eds.)

2015, XXIV, 318 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-658-08602-2