

Foreword

This book has been accepted as doctorate thesis by the Faculty of Law of the Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich in the winter semester 2013/2014. The work displays the development of the Chinese merger control regime and its application until December 2013. All opinions represented herein are my personal opinions only and not the opinions of any company or organisation I am associated with. The creation of this work has been promoted by a scholarship of the Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition in Munich, which also provided me with an excellent academic environment for my research.

I would like to thank my academic supervisor Prof. Dr. Josef Drexler, LL.M. (Berkeley), who has supported and encouraged me throughout the process. I also would like to thank Prof. Dr. Michael Lehmann, Dipl.-Kfm., for the fast preparation of the second opinion.

Further, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Zhu Zhongliang, LL.M. (Cantab.), and Sun Miao (both Anti-Monopoly Bureau of MOFCOM); Prof. Dr. Wang Xiaoye and Dr. Mao Xiaofei (both Chinese Academy of Social Sciences); Prof. Dr. Rupperecht Podszun (University of Bayreuth); and Dr. Michael Han, LL.M. (Harvard), and Dr. Sabine Stricker-Kellerer, LL.M. (Harvard) (both Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP) for their very instructive and valuable input, which contributed greatly to the success of this undertaking.

Finally, I would like to thank my husband Piet Weinreich for his unconditional support, help, and patience. And most importantly, I would like to thank my parents Hong and Xiaoyu Zhao who always knew how to motivate and support me with their invaluable advice.
