

Contents

1	Introduction to the Profit Model: Income and Expenditure
	Sources and Modes .....	1
1.1	Profit Models Do Not Equal Business Models .....	2
1.2	Profit Models: Not Only About Pricing .....	8
1.3	Profit Models: Sources and Modes of Income and Expenditure .....	10
1.4	Book Format .....	14
	References .....	15
2	Stakeholders of the Sources of Income and Expenditure .....	17
2.1	Introduction: Everything is Free of Charge! .....	17
2.2	Treasure Map of Profit Models: From PM0 to PM11 .....	18
2.3	Mutualism: Seeking Relevance Among Stakeholders .....	23
2.4	The Issue is not Free of Charge—It is Charging .....	26
2.5	Capturing High-Value Stakeholders .....	28
2.6	The Essence of the Advertising Model: Acquiring Accurate Attention .....	30
2.7	Brief Summary: Realize Sustained Interaction among Stakeholders .....	32
	Reference.....	34
3	Resource Capacities of Income and Expenditure Sources .....	35
3.1	Introduction: Big Business from a Little Raccoon .....	35
3.2	Definition: Resource Capacities of Income and Expenditure Sources .....	36
3.3	Build Leverage with Mutually Complementary Resources .....	41
3.4	Two Approaches to Acquiring Resource Capacities .....	44
3.5	Strategic Driving Forces behind the Acquisition Mode of Resource Capacities .....	46
3.6	Use Right is More Important than Ownership .....	48
3.7	Design Profit Models with Resource Capacities .....	49
3.8	Extension Design: Differences in Resource Capacities Drive the Design of Profit Models .....	51

4 Fixed, Residual, and Shared .....	53
4.1 Introduction: How Newplan Design Switched from Fixed to Shared Charging .....	53
4.2 Definition: Fixed, Residual, Shared .....	54
4.3 Fixed Contribution and Variable Contribution .....	55
4.4 Transaction Value: Who Can Create Higher Value for the Cooperation Body? .....	56
4.5 Transaction Cost: How to Resolve Information Asymmetry .....	59
4.6 Transaction Risk: How to Manage Uncertainties .....	61
4.7 Decision-Making Matrix for Fixed, Residual and Shared Models .....	64
4.8 Brief Summary: Flexible Combinations of Fixed, Residual and Shared Models and the Variances .....	66
4.9 Appendix: Other Factors That Affect Fixed, Residual and Shared Models .....	67
Reference.....	68
 5 Slotting Fee, Road Toll, Parking Fee, Fuel Charge and Sharing Fee .....	 69
5.1 Introduction: One Taobao, Multiple Charging Models .....	69
5.2 Definition: Slotting Fee, Road Toll, Parking Fee, Fuel Charge and Sharing Fee .....	70
5.3 From Slotting Fee to Sharing Fee: Boost Value through Precision Pricing .....	73
5.4 From Sharing Fee to Slotting Fee: Cost Saving through Simple Pricing .....	75
5.5 Risk Identification and Countermeasures .....	76
5.6 Brief Summary: Gaming Structure Differences behind Profit Models .....	79
 6 Customer Pricing for 1000 Hamlets .....	 83
6.1 Introduction: A “Willingness to Pay” Restaurant .....	83
6.2 Definition: Customer Pricing .....	85
6.3 Non-pricing Decisions Due to Information Asymmetry .....	86
6.4 Customer Pricing Brings Boost in Value .....	88
6.5 Adopt the Customer Pricing Model Judiciously .....	89
6.5.1 Products .....	90
6.5.2 Customers .....	91
6.5.3 Sellers .....	92
6.6 Brief Summary: Comparison Between Customer Pricing and Conventional Pricing .....	92
 7 Auctions.....	 95
7.1 Introduction: Even Clothes can be Auctioned .....	95
7.2 Definition: Auction-based Pricing .....	95

7.3	Realize Maximum Value by Inducing Competitive Bidding .....	98
7.4	Comprehensive and Efficient Decision-Making amid Transaction Cost and Risk .....	100
7.5	One Auction, Unlimited Combinations .....	102
7.6	When to Adopt Auction-based Pricing: The Key is Scarcity-Based Strong Bargaining Power .....	104
8	Combination Pricing (Part I) .....	109
8.1	Introduction: Centurion Cards from American Express Did Exactly the Opposite .....	109
8.2	Definition: Combination Pricing .....	110
8.3	Portfolio Pricing .....	110
8.3.1	Two-Part Pricing .....	111
8.3.2	Razor Blade and Reverse Razor Blade .....	113
8.3.3	Total Solution .....	118
8.3.4	Supermarket Shelf .....	121
	Reference.....	124
9	Combination Pricing (Part II) .....	125
9.1	Consumer Group Combination Pricing .....	125
9.1.1	Cross-Subsidization .....	125
9.1.2	Batch Pricing .....	129
9.1.3	Time-Based Pricing .....	131
9.2	Comprehensive Application of Portfolio Pricing & Consumer Group Combination Pricing .....	137
	Reference.....	141
10	Comprehensive Application of Profit Models .....	143
10.1	Introduction: Sacred Religious Pricing .....	143
10.2	Three Giants in the Commercial Real Estate Industry: Wanda, SOHO and SCP .....	144
10.2.1	Wanda Plaza: Masterful in the Commercial Real Estate Industry .....	144
10.2.2	SOHO: A Niche in the Commercial Real Estate Industry .....	147
10.2.3	SCP: Entry Player in Capital Markets .....	148
10.2.4	Comparison of Profit Models .....	150
10.3	New Highlight in Talent Shows: Super Girls vs. the Voice of China .....	154
10.3.1	Super Girls Kicked Off Talent Shows .....	154
10.3.2	The Voice of China: Turnaround Talent Show .....	156
10.3.3	Comparison of Profit Models .....	160
10.4	Budget Airlines: The Choice to Save Money .....	162
10.4.1	Southwest Airlines: Budget Airline Pioneer .....	163
10.4.2	JetBlue Airways: Embracing IT .....	167

10.4.3	Ryanair: The Total Solution in Air Travel .....	169
10.4.4	Comparison of Profit Models .....	173
10.4.5	Who is the Mentor for Spring Airlines? .....	174
10.5	Professional Sports Organizations: The Most Successful
	Football Club vs. the Greatest Basketball League .....	175
10.5.1	Manchester United: The Most Successful
	Football Club .....	175
10.5.2	NBA: The Greatest Basketball League .....	178
10.5.3	Comparison of Profit Models .....	181
	Reference.....	184

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-662-44713-0>

The Principle of Profit Models

Lin, G.; Wei, W.; Zhu, W.

2015, XIV, 184 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-662-44713-0