

Contents

Introduction	1
Lisa Loloma Froholdt, Erin Williams, and Momoko Kitada
 Part I Maritime Policy and Women’s Advancement
Women at the Helm: 25 Years of IMO’s Gender Programme	17
Pamela Tansey
Leading Change: The ITF Women’s Maritime Leadership Programme	23
Alison McGarry
Board Characteristics and the Presence of Women on the Board of Directors: The Case of the Greek Shipping Sector	35
Aspasia S. Pastra, Dimitrios N. Koufopoulos, and Ioannis P. Gkliatis
Participation of Ecuadorian Women in the Maritime Oil Transportation Sector	55
Margarita Dávila Cevallos
 Part II Career Development and Gender Issues
The “Leaky Pipeline”: Examining and Addressing the Loss of Women at Consecutive Career Stages in Marine Engineering, Science and Technology	69
Bev Mackenzie
Women in the Maritime Sector: Surviving and Thriving in a Man’s World—A Caribbean Perspective	83
Claudia Grant and Vivette Grant

Women's Role in the Turkish and Global Maritime Industry	103
Ayşe Aslı Başak
Absent Mother Sailors: How Possible Is It to Do the Impossible?	113
Momoko Kitada
Part III Maritime Education and Research: Impact of Women
Let Numbers Speak: Job Opportunities and International Exchange Programs for Female Maritime Cadets	129
Qi Chen
Mind the Gap! Maritime Education for Gender-Equal Career Advancement	143
Maria Boström Cars and Cecilia Österman
Are Women Contributing Equally to the Oceanography Science in Brazil?	155
Rozane Valente Marins and Juliana Berninger da Costa
Education for Career-Building: How Women in the Maritime Industry Can Use Education to Improve Knowledge, Skills, Organizational Learning and Development, and Knowledge Transfer	167
Wilson Thoya Baya
Part IV Global Leadership for Maritime Women
Women Leadership in Maritime Law Firms: The Antwerp Case	181
Anniek Wouters
Women Are Better Leaders Than They Think: Gender Differences in the Self-Assessment of Leadership Skills in the Maritime Industry	201
Olga Delgado Ortega, Kjell Ivar Øvergård, and Veronica Henden
How to Cope with Second-Generation Gender Bias in Male-Dominated Occupations	217
Pınar Özdemir and Taner Albayrak
Women in Shipping: Navigating to the Top	229
Karin Orsel
Part V Sustainable Issues in Shipping: Women's Contribution
Chinese Women Seafarers: Past, Present and Prospects	235
Pengfei Zhang and Minghua Zhao
Sustainable Development Issues in Shipping: Women, the Under-Represented Human Resource	255
Colin J. Stevenson

Improving the Current Regime for Ship Safety Inspections:
Opportunities for Technology Research and Women Employment 267
Marlene Calderón, Diana Illing, Ingrid Schipperen, and Pedro Antão

Conclusion 287
Momoko Kitada, Lisa Loloma Froholdt, and Erin Williams

Maritime Women: Global Leadership Declaration 295

Annex - Maritime Women: Global Leadership 2014 Conference
Programme 299

Maritime Women: Global Leadership

Kitada, M.; Williams, E.; Froholdt, L.L. (Eds.)

2015, XV, 304 p. 29 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-662-45384-1