

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	References	2
2	Political Virtues	3
2.1	No Republic Without Virtue	3
2.2	Mythical Examples of Classical Virtues	4
2.3	Postmodern Virtues	6
2.3.1	Lightness	6
2.3.2	Agility (Quickness)	7
2.3.3	Rigor (Precision)	7
2.3.4	Exposure (Visibility)	8
2.3.5	Pluralism (Diversity)	8
2.3.6	Consistency	8
2.3.7	“Un Coeur Intelligent”—“An Intelligent Heart”	8
2.4	The Virtue of Auctoritas	9
2.4.1	Consistency and Conviction	9
2.4.2	Public Service and Dedication	10
2.4.3	Detachment from Public Places	10
2.4.4	Public Private Thrift and Liberality	11
2.4.5	Simplicity, Frugality, and Personal Restraint	11
2.4.6	Constancy, Smart Adaptability, and Consistency	12
2.4.7	Legalism and Intelligent Criticism: Respect for Laws as Guarantors of Freedom	12
2.5	Contemporary Political Virtues	13
2.5.1	Vices, Tyrants, and Little Tyrants	13
2.5.2	Against License: the Virtues of Delicacy, Attention, and Solidarity	14
2.5.3	Against Privilege: the Virtues of Love of Order Rationality, Fairness, and Equity	15

2.5.4	Against Abuse of Power and Corruption: the Virtues of Love to Dialog, Pluralism, Transparency, Accuracy, Control, and Separation of Powers	15
2.5.5	Against Achilles Complex: Zeno	16
2.5.6	Against the Wolves and Foxes: Doves–Serpents	17
2.5.7	Against Corruption and Other Tricks, the Division, the Profusion of “Hats”	17
2.5.8	Against Ignorance, Obscurantism, Apathy, Servility, Inhumanity, Lack of Direction: the Love for Culture and Education; and the Education for Citizenship and Human Rights	19
	References	24
3	Political Values	27
3.1	Republic: An Axiological Topic	27
3.2	Idea of Republic	28
3.3	State, Democracy, and Human Rights	28
3.4	Political Values and Axiological Topics	29
3.5	Enemies of the Republic and Their Antidotes	30
3.6	The Way of the Enlightenment and Republican Hope	32
3.7	Freedom	35
3.8	Equality	41
3.9	Justice	43
3.10	Justice, Social Justice and Republic	45
3.11	Fraternity	47
3.12	Value Topics: Citizenship, Pluralism, Secularism, Legal Certainty and Governance.	53
	References	54
4	The European Constitution, a Republican Construction?	59
4.1	Theoretical Verfremdungseffekt	59
4.2	European Constitution and Constitutional Theory	60
4.2.1	The Two Classical Theories of Constitution	60
4.2.2	The Lesson of the French Declaration of Human Rights and Citizens: Modern Constitutional Requisites.	62
4.2.3	European Constitution, Natural Constitution, and Codified Constitution	64
4.2.4	European Constitution and Constituent Power	66
4.2.5	European Constitution: Treaty or Constitution?	69
4.2.6	Constitutional Treaty	71

4.3	On the Rupture and What It Means for Constitutional Theory	72
	References	74
5	Global Crisis and European Constitution	75
5.1	Trying to Make a Codified Constitution for Europe	75
5.2	Problems of a Real European Constitution.	76
5.3	The Material Constitution	77
	5.3.1 More European Hope and Imagination	77
	5.3.2 People, Not Only Finance	78
	5.3.3 Republican Aims	78
	5.3.4 Social European Model: The Social State	79
5.4	Lessons on Constitutional Theory: A Federal and Social Fraternal Europe.	80
	References	81

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-662-45599-9>

Political Ethics and European Constitution

Ferreira da Cunha, P.

2015, XV, 81 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-662-45599-9